Women War And The Making Of Bangladesh Remembering 1971:

Women, War, and the Making of Bangladesh Yasmin Saikia, 2011-08-10 Bangladeshi women recall the sexualized violence of the war of 1971 fought between India and what was then East and West Pakistan Recounting the Memories of Bangladesh's Liberation War Smruti S. Pattanaik, 2024-02-08 This book encapsulates the creation of Bangladesh with stories of some of those who made it happen from the perspectives of people who fought for recognition of Bangla as one of the state languages of Pakistan those who brought the stories of war to life as it progressed through the Swadhin Bangla Betar Kendro operations by valiant military men sacrifices of Birangonas women of valour whose contribution to the liberation of Bangladesh has often been neglected martyrs who laid down their lives for the birth of the nation and those who worked among the freedom fighters and refugees and kept their morale high The emergence of Bangladesh in 1971 shaped both the nation and its narratives that revolved around partition of the subcontinent earlier in 1947 The history of Bangladesh was rewritten from the people's perspective The struggle of individuals and families who contributed to the liberation of Bangladesh is etched in blood and it is but natural that their perspectives would inform those interested in studying the history of liberation in a larger context More than fifty years have passed since Bangladesh was liberated Yet stories of individual suffering sacrifices and contributions illustrate how people endured the repression inflicted by the Pakistan Army on them and yet fought gallantly Three million were killed 2 million were raped and 10 million became refugees in India Bangladesh's liberation war also represents the struggle of a people to preserve their culture and identity This book captures all these and much more bringing in reminiscences of what 1971 represented to those who contributed directly to the war of liberation The book will be of interest to scholars and researchers of politics and international relations partition studies South Asian studies and refugee and diaspora studies The chapters in this book were originally published in Strategic Analysis

Women and Genocide JoAnn DiGeorgio-Lutz, Donna Gosbee, 2016-04-25 Illuminating the unique experiences of women both during and after genocide JoAnn DiGeorgio Lutz and Donna Gosbee's edited collection is a vital addition to genocide scholarship The contributors revisit genocides of the twentieth and twenty first centuries from Armenia in 1915 to Gujarat in 2002 examining the roles of women as victims witnesses survivors and rescuers The text underscores women's experiences as a central yet often overlooked component to the understanding of genocide Drawing from narratives memoirs testimonies and literature this groundbreaking volume brings together women's stories of victimization trauma and survival Each chapter is framed by a consistent methodology to allow for a comparative analysis revealing the ways in which women's experiences across genocides are similar and yet profoundly different By looking at genocide from a gendered perspective Women and Genocide constitutes an important contribution to feminist research on war and political violence Featuring critical thinking questions and concise histories of each genocidal period discussed this highly accessible text is an ideal resource for both students and instructors in this field and for anyone interested in the study of women's lives in times of violence and conflict In the Crossfire of History Lava Asaad, Fayeza Hasanat, 2022-09-16 In the global south women have and continue to resist multiple forms of structural violence The atrocities committed against Yazidi women by ISIS have been recognized internationally and the Nobel Peace Prize awarded to Nadia Murad in 2018 was a tribute to honor women whose bodies have been battered in the name of race nationality war and religion In the Crossfire of History Women's War Resistance Discourse in the Global South is an edited collection that incorporates literary works testimonies autobiographies women's resistance movements and films that add to the conversation on the resilience of women in the global south The collection focuses on Palestine Kashmir Syria Kurdistan Congo Argentina Central America Sri Lanka and Bangladesh The essays question historical accuracy and politics of representation that usually undermine women's role during conflict and they reevaluate how women participated challenged sacrificed and vehemently opposed war discourses that erase women's role in shaping resistance movements The transformative mode of these examples expands the definition of heroism and defiance To prevent these types of heroism from slipping into the abyss of history this collection brings forth and celebrates women's fortitude in conflict zones In the Crossfire of History shines a light on women across the globe who are resisting the sociopolitical and economic injustices in their nation states Narratives of Loss and Longing Nukhbah Taj Langah, Roshni Sengupta, 2024-12-23 This volume brings together new research on the developing and transforming literary scape in South Asia in the aftermath of the partitions of 1947 and 1971 It thematically explores the transformations that have taken place in the literary spheres of India Pakistan and Bangladesh since violence and irresolvable conflicts wreaked the subcontinent through the narratives of loss and longing The volume deals with key themes such as feminism minorities and marginality vernacular history Bengali literary representations and post Partition artistic and literary representations It contributes towards fostering a network for academic exchange across the borders thereby presenting diverse and in depth studies on a plethora of subjects within the larger framework of literary landscapes Narratives of Loss and Longing will be of interest to scholars of literary studies postcolonial and decolonial studies partition studies minority studies refugee studies gender and women's studies and those interested in South Asia especially India Pakistan and Bangladesh Nation and Its Modes of Oppressions in South Asia Sajal Nag, 2022-12-30 This volume examines nationhood as a concept and how it became the basis of political discourse in South Asia It studies the emergence of nationalism in modern states as a powerful omnipotent and omnipresent form of political identity in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries This book examines the idea of a nation as it originated in medieval Europe as an unending process of othering individuals groups and communities to establish its hegemony exclusivity and absolute power within a political discourse It sheds light on how these new political frameworks in the name of nationalism resulted in conflicts and bloodshed It unleashed politics of retribution and facilitated majoritarianism minority persecution and collective authoritarianism which devastated individuals and collectivities Further the author also discusses various prominent ideas and contemporary theories on nationalism alongside pivotal socio cultural factors which have significantly shaped the formation of modern nation states and their politics Topical and nuanced this book will be indispensable to researchers scholars and readers interested in nationalism political science modern history political theory political philosophy political sociology political history post colonial studies and South Asia studies The Herald ,2012
