Women Work And Islamism Ideology And Resistance In Iran:

Women, Work and Islamism Maryam Poya, 1999 Based on original research into women's participation in the workforce this book is the most up to date study of women in Iran available The Islamisation of state and society which followed the 1979 revolution involved an attempt by the Islamic state to seclude women within the home However the power of the state was constrained by many factors the Iran Iraq war economic restructuring and women's own responses to oppression In spite of continual attempts by the state to strengthen patriarchal relationships women's participation in the labour force in 1999 is greater than it was before the revolution Women's participation in both the economy and in political movements has led to a much greater level of gender consciousness in the 1990s than at the height of westernisation in the 1960s and 70s Religious and secular women in urban areas have demanded reforms and forced the Islamic state to return to the position of the pre 1979 reforms Providing a history of Iran an introduction to Islamism and an analysis of the women and Islam debate this book will be necessary reading for students and academics of Middle East studies women's studies and labour studies

Women, Work and Islamism Elaheh Rostami-Povey, 2011-03-01 This work explores Islamism in practice and looks at the influence of state economy and religion on women in Iran Drawing on original research into women's participation in the workforce the author shows how the Islamization of state and society which followed the 1979 revolution involved an attempt by the Islamic state to seclude women within the home Its power to transform gender relations however was constrained by many factors the Iran Iraq war economic restructuring and women's own responses to oppression Despite continual state attempts to strengthen patriarchal relationships throughout society and to maintain a rigid sexual division of labour women's participation in the labour force in 1999 is greater than it was before the revolution and gender consciousness is at a higher level than at the height of westernization in the 1960s and 70s Religious and secular women in urban areas have allied to demand reforms and forced the Islamic state to return to the position of the pre 1979 reforms in relation to women and the family

Women, Islam and Education in Iran Goli M. Rezai-Rashti, Golnar Mehran, Shirin Abdmolaei, 2019-02-21 Drawing on the complexities and nuances in women's education in relation to the aftermath of the 1979 Iranian Revolution this edited collection examines implications of religious based policies on gender relations as well as the unanticipated outcomes of increasing participation of women in education With a focus on the impact of the Islamic Republic's Islamicization endeavor on Iranian society specifically gender relations and education this volume offers insight into the paradox of increasing educational opportunities despite discriminatory laws and restrictions that have been imposed on women

Women, Religion and Culture in Iran Sarah Ansari, Vanessa Martin, 2014-05-01 Investigates how women religion and culture have interacted in the context of 19th and 20th century Iran covering topics as seemingly diverse as the social and cultural history of Persian cuisine the work and attitudes of 19th century Christian missionaries the impact of growing female literacy and the consequences of developments since 1979

Social Movements in Egypt and Iran T.

Povey,2016-02-09 This book analyses the reform movement in Iran and the Egyptian opposition movement since the early 1990s in their historical contexts It argues that the contemporary movements seen on the streets of the regions today represent the culmination of over twenty years of mobilisation by social movements

Muslim Feminism and Feminist Movement Abida Samiuddin,R. Khanam,2002 The sole objective of this three volumes book Muslim Feminism and Feminist Movement in South Asia India Pakistan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka is to provide a comprehensive analysis of the nature and motivation of feminism and feminist movement in Islamic perspective Here we are presenting few important articles contributed by eminent scholars on this subject There have been three major waves of Muslim feminist expression first wave is an expression gender consciousness individual feminist writings second wave is everyday activism including individual innovations in daily life and third wave is an organised movement activism which is highly visible and more confrontational

Participation and Protest Sarah Henderson,Alana S. Jeydel,2007 Despite increased international rhetoric in support of women s equality women currently comprise a disproportionate share of the world s illiterate poor displaced underpaid underemployed and underrepresented populations And though women have gained visibility and influence in a wide array of political and economic arenas their position and status in society are still far from equal to those of men On the other hand since the post World War II era there has been a global explosion of women s activism on behalf of equality liberation and better living conditions women are standing up not only for themselves but also for other disempowered groups Participation and Protest provides an overview of the ways in which women participate in institutionalized politics social movements and revolutionary movements It discusses key policy issues that affect women such as equality in the workforce maternity and family leave policies and reproductive rights Exploring the critical concerns that confront women in the world community including economic development war and international law the book analyzes the role of women in nationalist and fundamentalist movements and also considers women s rights in the broader context of international human rights Offering global coverage of this important subject Participation and Protest examines the impact of women in politics and politics impact on women from a cross national comparative perspective
