Women Writers At Work The Paris Review Interviews Modern Library:

Women Writers at Work Paris Review, 1998-07-21 Sixteen of the world's great women writers speak about their work their colleagues and their lives For More Than Forty Years the acclaimed Paris Review interviews have been collected in the Writers at Work series The Modern Library relaunches the series with the first of its specialized collections interviews with sixteen women novelists poets and playwrights all offering rich commentary on the art of writing and on the opportunities and challenges a woman writer faces in contemporary society The Modern Library Writer's Workshop Stephen Koch, 2003-04 The Modern Library Writer's Workshop presents a treasure trove of useful advice inspiring wisdom and encouraging support for the beginning fiction writer by the former chair of the graduate writing program at Columbia University Advice to the Writer Stephen Koch, 2014-02-25 From Stephen Koch former chair of Columbia University's graduate creative writing program comes essential and practical advice drawn from The Modern Library Writer's Workshop With nearly thirty years of teaching experience Stephen Koch has earned a reputation as an astute and benevolent mentor and with Advice to the Writer his lucid observations and commonsense techniques have never been more accessible Here Koch dispenses sound guidance for those moments when the muse needs a little help finding her way in Shaping the Story he untangles plot in Working and Reworking he explains the most teachable yet least often taught of all writerly skills revision and in The Story of the Self he delves into autobiography Featuring handpicked commentary from some of our greatest authors Advice to the Writer is a unique introduction to this maddening and intoxicating pursuit Praise for Stephen Koch's The Modern Library Writer's Workshop An extraordinarily comprehensive and practical work by a master craftsman and a master analyst of the craft Madison Smartt Bell author of All Souls Rising and Anything Goes Stephen Koch was my teacher long ago Now he is everyone's teacher indelibly This is a book not just for the beginning writer but for every writer Martha McPhee author of the National Book Award nominee Gorgeous Lies The Modern Library Writer's Workshop is a treasure trove of wisdom both immensely practical and philosophical entertaining and thought provoking Koch takes us inside the writing process and it is impossible not to emerge transformed Joanna Hershon author of Swimming Sontag and Kael Craig Seligman, 2005-06-08 A witty and stylish assessment of the work of two icons of cultural criticism Susan Sontag and Pauline Kael Though outwardly they had some things in common they were both Westerners who came east both schooled in philosophy both secular Jews and both single mothers they were polar opposites in temperament and approach Seligman approaches both women through their widely discussed work Kael practiced a kind of verbal jazz exuberant excessive intimate emotional and funny Sontag is formal and rather icy From the beginning it's clear where Seligman's sympathies lie Sontag is a critic he reveres but Kael is a critic he loves But for all his reservations about Sontag he considers both writers magnificent and his exploration of their differences results in this luminously written landmark of criticism The Black Female Body in American Literature and Art Caroline Brown, 2013-02-28 This book examines how African American writers and visual artists interweave icon and inscription in order to re present the black female body traditionally rendered alien and inarticulate within Western discursive and visual systems Brown considers how the writings of Toni Morrison Gayl Jones Paule Marshall Edwidge Danticat Jamaica Kincaid Andrea Lee Gloria Naylor and Martha Southgate are bound to such contemporary postmodern visual artists as Lorna Simpson Carrie Mae Weems Kara Walker Betye Saar and Faith Ringgold While the artists and authors rely on radically different media photos collage video and assembled objects as opposed to words and rhythm both sets of intellectual activists insist on the primacy of the black aesthetic Both assert artistic agency and cultural continuity in the face of the oppression social transformation and cultural multiplicity of the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries This book examines how African American performative practices mediate the tension between the ostensibly de racialized body politic and the hyper racialized black female body reimagining the cultural and political ground that guides various articulations of American national belonging Brown shows how and why black women writers and artists matter as agents of change how and why the form and content of their works must be recognized and reconsidered in the increasingly frenzied arena of cultural production and political debate

The Intersecting Realities and Fictions of Virginia Woolf and Colette Helen Southworth, 2004 What might the author of Mrs Dalloway and A Room of One's Own have in common with the author of the Claudine series and The Pure and the Impure Resisting long held interpretations that Colette and Virginia Woolf had little in common Southworth shows here the links between the two famous writers both real and imagined Often cast in their diametrically opposed roles of elitist bluestocking and risque music hall performer critics have overlooked the many ways in which the lives and works of Woolf and Colette intersect This study provides a broad ranging introduction to the biographical stylistic and thematic ties that link the lives and works of Britain's and France's first ladies of letters of the early twentieth century Situating the two writers within an international network of artists and literati including Jacques Emile Blanche Radclyffe Hall and Una Troubridge Winnie de Polignac Gisele Freund Sylvia Beach and Adrienne Monnier Vita Sackville West and Violet Trefusis this study complicates conceptions of the differences national sexual cultural and intellectual which have kept these two women apart by placing these same differences at its center Southworth develops work already undertaken on Woolf's contacts with France and adds to the body of comparative work on Woolf and her contemporaries This study also highlights as yet unexplored connections between Colette and her British and American peers Southworth's book makes a significant contribution to gay and lesbian studies and the study of modernist culture It also demonstrates the potential of social network theory for literary studies
