American Literature in Transition, 1980-1990 D. Quentin Miller, 2017-12-28 History has not been kind to the 1980s The decade is often associated with absurd fashion choices neo Conservatism in the Reagan Bush years the AIDS crisis Wall Street ethics and uninspired television film and music Yet the literature of the 1980s is undeniably rich and lasting American Literature in Transition 1980 1990 seeks to frame some of the decade's greatest achievements such as Toni Morrison's monumental novel Beloved and to consider some of the trends that began in the 1980s and developed thereafter including the origins of the graphic novel prison literature and the opening of multiculturalism vis vis the canon wars This volume argues not only for the importance of 1980s American literature but also for its centrality in understanding trends and trajectories in all contemporary literature against the broader background of culture This volume serves as both an introduction and a deep consideration of the literary culture of our most maligned decade Migrating Words and Worlds E. Anthony Hurley, Renée Brenda Larrier, Joseph McLaren, 1999 The essays presented here demonstrating concepts of Pan Africanism which historically were concerned with colonialism racial identity and African unity extend the discussion of an Africa that exists beyond the continent and includes the Caribbean the Americas and Europe Migrant Voices in Literatures in English Anu Shukla, 2006 Papers presented at the Second World Conference of World Association for Studies in Literatures in English held at Nagpur in January 2004 Women's Writing, Englishness and National and Cultural Identity M. Joannou, 2012-07-17 An original mapping of women s writing in the 1940s and 1950s this book looks at Englishness and national identity in women s writing and includes writing from Scotland Wales Ireland the Indian subcontinent and Africa The authors discussed include Virginia Woolf Daphne Du Maurier Doris Lessing and Muriel Spark European Intertexts Patsy Stoneman, Ana María Sánchez-Arce, Angela Leighton, 2005 European Intertexts is the first fruit of an ongoing collaborative study aiming to challenge the isolationism of much critical work on English literature by exploring the interdependence of English and continental European literatures in writing by women While later volumes will deal with specific texts this introductory volume provides a descriptive framework and a theoretical basis for studies in the field Covering issues such as the role of English as a world language the definition of Europe and the current state of Translation Studies the book also surveys theories of intertextuality and demonstrates intertextual links between written and visual and film texts This book is itself pioneering in making a systematic approach to women s writings in English in the context of other European cultures Although Europe is a political reality this cultural interpenetration remains largely unexamined and these essays represent an important first step towards revealing that unexplored richness Songs of the Women Migrants Deborah James, 2019-07-31 This book gives an account of how migrant women dance and sing the vibrant and expressive musical style of kiba Migrant Emotions Sonia Cancian, Peter Leese, Soňa Mikulová, 2024-08-21 Migrant Emotions explores the interrelationships and tensions between mobility and immobility emotions affects and experiences inclusion and exclusion as well as narratives and representations in both local and global discourses The overall objective of the volume is to underscore the significance of emotions in the analysis of mobile lives in the past and the current socio political climate The book provides a new framework that brings together the study of emotions and migration by focusing on the feelings or emotions of exclusion and inclusion through a range of theoretical lenses Specifically it offers a series of complex interconnected studies on diverse experiences responses and voices of migrants including refugees asylum seekers undocumented and others on the move both in the twentieth and the twenty first centuries and across the continents including Europe Molesini Daniel Stock Castillo Goncalves Cancian Leese Africa Cancian Kilpel inen and Zechner Asia Mutiara Paul Ridgway and Oceania Heckenberg Integral to the volume s original objective is an emphasis on the global diversity of contributors and studies and the global reach of readership for purposes of comparison Hybridity, Identity and Belonging in the Poetry of Moniza Alvi and Choman Hardi James Davey,2025-10-24 Hybridity Identity and Belonging in the Poetry of Moniza Alvi and Choman Hardi Writing Home explores how contemporary British poets navigate the complex and often contested concept of home Focusing on the works of Moniza Alvi and Choman Hardi as well as other contemporary poets this book examines how home is constructed through language memory and lived experience existing as both a physical place and an evolving process of becoming Drawing on postcolonial theory diasporic perspectives and literary representations of place the book investigates themes of exile hybridity and the intersections of personal and national identity In doing so it asks how does poetry articulate the complexities of belonging in a world increasingly shaped by migration displacement and shifting cultural identities Documenting Gendered Violence Lisa M. Cuklanz,Heather McIntosh,2016-08-25 Documenting Gendered Violence explores the intersections of documentary and gendered violence Several contributors investigate representations through grounded textual analyses of key films and videos including Sex Crimes Unit 2011 and The Invisible War 2012 and other documentary texts including Youtube photographs and theater Other chapters use analysis and interviews to explore how gender violence issues impact production and how these documentaries become part of collaborations and awareness movements
