

The cover features a stylized painting of two women in traditional attire. The woman on the left wears a red dress and has her hands clasped in prayer. The woman on the right wears a yellow dress and also has her hands clasped. In the background, two children in blue and white clothing are walking. The overall style is reminiscent of traditional African art.

“Happiness” and “Pain” across Languages and Cultures Cliff Goddard, Zhengdao Ye, 2016-07-26 In the fast growing fields of happiness studies and pain research which have attracted scholars from diverse disciplines including psychology philosophy medicine and economics this volume provides a much needed cross linguistic perspective It centres on the question of how much ways of talking and thinking about happiness and pain vary across cultures and seeks to answer this question by empirically examining the core vocabulary pertaining to happiness and pain in many languages and in different religious and cultural traditions The authors not only probe the precise meanings of the expressions in question but also provide extensive cultural contextualization showing how these meanings are truly cultural Methodologically while in full agreement with the view of many social scientists and economists that self reports are the bedrock of happiness research the volume presents a body of evidence highlighting the problem of translation and showing how local concepts of happiness and pain can be understood without an Anglo bias The languages examined include Mandarin Chinese Danish English French German Japanese Koromu a Papua New Guinean language and Latin American Spanish Originally published in International Journal of Language and Culture Vol 1 2 2014

The Routledge Handbook of Language and Culture Farzad Sharifian, 2014-12-17 The Routledge Handbook of Language and Culture presents the first comprehensive survey of research on the relationship between language and culture It provides readers with a clear and accessible introduction to both interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary studies of language and culture and addresses key issues of language and culturally based linguistic research from a variety of perspectives and theoretical frameworks This Handbook features thirty three newly commissioned chapters which cover key areas such as cognitive psychology cognitive linguistics cognitive anthropology linguistic anthropology cultural anthropology and sociolinguistics offer insights into the historical development contemporary theory research and practice of each topic and explore the potential future directions of the field show readers how language and culture research can be of practical benefit to applied areas of research and practice such as intercultural communication and second language teaching and learning Written by a group of prominent scholars from around the globe The Routledge Handbook of Language and Culture provides a vital resource for scholars and students working in this area Language and Emotion. Volume 1 Gesine Lenore Schiewer, Jeanette Altarriba, Bee Chin Ng, 2022-11-07 The Handbook consists of four major sections Each section is introduced by a main article Theories of Emotion General Aspects Perspectives in Communication Theory Semiotics and Linguistics Perspectives on Language and Emotion in Cultural Studies Interdisciplinary and Applied Perspectives The first section presents interdisciplinary emotion theories relevant for the field of language and communication research including the history of emotion research The second section focuses on the full range of emotion related aspects in linguistics semiotics and communication theories The next section focuses on cultural studies and language and emotion emotions in arts and literature as well as research on emotion in literary studies and media and emotion The final section covers different domains social practices and applications such as society policy diplomacy economics and business communication religion and emotional language the domain of affective computing in human machine interaction and language and emotion research for language education Overall this Handbook represents a comprehensive overview in a rich diverse compendium never before published in this particular domain Studies in Ethnopragmatics, Cultural Semantics, and Intercultural Communication Kerry Mullan, Bert Peeters, Lauren Sadow, 2019-10-24 This book is the first in a three volume set that celebrates the career and achievements of Cliff Goddard a pioneer of the Natural Semantic Metalanguage approach in linguistics In addition it explores ethnopragmatics and conversational humour with a further focus on semantic analysis more broadly Often considered the most fully developed comprehensive and practical approach to cross linguistic and cross cultural semantics Natural Semantic Metalanguage is based on evidence that there is a small core of basic universal meanings semantic primes that can be expressed in all languages It has been used for linguistic and cultural analysis in such diverse fields as semantics cross cultural communication language teaching humour studies and applied linguistics and has reached far beyond the boundaries of linguistics into ethnopsychology anthropology history political science the medical humanities and ethics Meaning, Life and Culture Helen Bromhead, Zhengdao Ye, 2020-12-17 This book is dedicated to Anna Wierzbicka one of the most influential and innovative linguists of her generation Her work spans a number of disciplines including anthropology cultural psychology cognitive science philosophy and religious studies as well as her home base of linguistics She is best known for the Natural Semantic Metalanguage NSM approach to meaning a versatile tool for exploring big questions concerning the diversity and universals of people s experience in the world In this volume Anna Wierzbicka's former students old and current colleagues kindred spirits and sparring partners engage with her ideas and diverse body of work These authors cover topics from the grammar of action verbs to cross cultural pragmatics and over 30 languages from around the world are represented The chapters in Part 1 focus on the NSM approach and cover four themes lexico grammatical semantics cultural keywords semantics of nouns and emotion In Part 2 the contributors connect with a meaning based approach from their own intellectual perspectives including syntax anthropology cognitive linguistics and sociolinguistics The deep humanistic perspective wide ranging themes and interdisciplinary nature of Wierzbicka's research are reflected in the contributions The common thread running through all chapters is the primacy of meaning to the understanding of language and culture

Linguistics and Language Behavior

Abstracts, 2009-02 Language and Culture David Leedom Shaul, Louanna Furbee-Losee, 1998 This book examines the relation of language to culture as well as the use of linguistic structure as a model for other cultural systems one that draws on primary sources synthesizing classic influential arguments examples with newer themes views Contrastive Linguistics Wenguo Pan, Tham Wai Mun, 2007-07-10 Contrastive Linguistics is the first book written by a linguist from mainland China on the histories and principles of comparing and contrasting Chinese and Western languages specifically English From Wilhelm von Humboldt's initial study in comparative linguistics to the present day traditional scholarship in contrastive linguistics has taken a Western perspective and shown how foreign languages relate to the Indo European language family However such a view has a limited scope and there is an alternative history to contrastive linguistics This book is an attempt by Professor Wenguo Pan to redress the balance in contrastive linguistics comparing Western languages to Chinese rather than vice versa He provides a survey of contrastive linguistics in China throughout the past century and aims to open a window for the world to see what the new generations of Chinese linguists are doing in this exciting field and to start a dialogue between scholars of different backgrounds and linguistic traditions Contrastive Linguistics looks at the history of this discipline both in Europe and in China Professor Pan presents a survey of the historical philosophical and methodological foundations of the discipline but also examines its scope in relation to general comparative anthropological and applied linguistics This book will be of interest to academics interested in a new perspective on contrastive linguistics or Chinese linguistics Ranah, 2012 The Semantics of Nouns Zhengdao Ye, 2017-04-14 This volume brings together the latest research on the semantics of nouns in both familiar and less well documented languages including English Mandarin Chinese Russian the Papuan language Koromu the Dravidian language Solega and Pitjantjatjara Yankunytjatjara from Australia Chapters offer systematic and detailed analyses of scores of individual nouns across a range of conceptual domains including people places and living things with each analysis fully grounded in a unified methodological framework They not only cover central theoretical issues specific to the analysis of the domain in question but also empirically investigate the different types of meaning relations that hold between nouns such as meronymy hyponymy taxonomy and antonymy The collection of studies show how in depth meaning analysis anchored in a cross linguistic and cross domain perspective can lead to unexpected insights into the common and particular ways in which speakers of different languages conceptualize categorize and order the world around them This unique volume brings together a new generation of semanticists from across the globe and will be of interest to researchers in linguistics psychology anthropology biology and philosophy Cognitive Linguistics Investigations June Luchjenbroers,2006 The total body of papers presented in this volume captures research across a variety of languages and language groups to show how particular elements of linguistic description draw on otherwise separate aspects or fields of linguistic investigation As such this volume captures a diversity of research interest from the field of cognitive linguistics These areas include lexical semantics cognitive grammar metaphor prototypes pragmatics narrative and discourse computational and translation models and are considered within the contexts of language change child language acquisition language and culture grammatical features and word order and gesture Despite possible differences in philosophical approach to the role of language in cognitive tasks these papers are similar in a fundamental way they all share a commitment to the view that human categorization involves mental concepts that have fuzzy boundaries and are culturally and situation based The Semantics of Classificatory Verbs in Enga (and Other Papua New Guinea Languages) Adrienne Lang,1975 No Indigenous Australian content The English Language and the Construction of Cultural and Social Identity in Zimbabwean and Trinbagonian Literatures Edmund Olushina Bamiro,2000 This study is unique in that it blends insights from post colonial literary theory sociolinguistics and the social psychology of language use to compare the nature function and meaning of English in the delineation of cultural and social identities in anglophone Zimbabwean and Trinbagonian literatures These identities are communicated through certain nativization strategies and the power and politics of English The study emphasizes that the variations in the linguistic practices of Zimbabwean and Trinbagonian and indeed other post colonial writers cumulatively establish different meanings identities subjectivities from those of the users of the hegemonic or putative standard English linguistic code Catalogs of Courses University of California, Berkeley,1990 Includes general and summer catalogs issued between 1878 1879 and 1995 1997 Cultural Studies in the EFL Classroom Werner Delanoy,Laurenz Volkmann,2006 Zeitschrift für germanistische Linguistik ,2006
