Teaching U.S.-Educated Multilingual Writers Mark Roberge, Kay M. Losey, Margi Wald, 2015-06-04 This volume was born to address the lack of classroom oriented scholarship regarding U.S. educated multilingual writers Unlike prior volumes about U.S. educated multilinguals this book focuses solely on pedagogy from classroom activities and writing assignments to course curricula and pedagogical support programs outside the immediate classroom Unlike many pedagogical volumes that are written in the voice of an expert researcher theorist this volume is based on the notion of teachers sharing practices with teachers All of the contributors are teachers who are writing about and reflecting on their own experiences and outcomes and interweaving those experiences and outcomes with current theory and research in the field The volume thus portrays teachers as active reflective participants engaged in critical inquiry Contributors represent community college college and university contexts academic ESL developmental writing and first year composition classes and face to face hybrid and online contexts This book was developed primarily to meet the needs of practicing writing teachers in college level ESL basic writing and college composition classrooms but will also be useful to pre service teachers in TESOL Composition and Education graduate programs

Treatment of Error in Second Language Student Writing Dana Ferris, 2011 Come comportarsi di fronte agli errori di scrittura in inglese per studenti che non sono di madre lingua inglese

Written Corrective Feedback in Second Language Acquisition and Writing John Bitchener, Dana R. Ferris, 2012-03-15 What should language and writing teachers do about giving students written corrective feedback This book surveys theory research and practice on the important and sometimes controversial issue of written corrective feedback also known as error grammar correction and its impact on second language acquisition and second language writing development Offering state of the art treatment of a topic that is highly relevant to both researchers and practitioners it critically analyzes and synthesizes several parallel and complementary strands of research work on error feedback both oral and written in SLA and studies of the impact of error correction in writing composition courses and addresses practical applications Drawing from both second language acquisition and writing composition literature this volume is the first to intentionally connect these two separate but important lines of inquiry
