Animal Soundscapes in Anglo-Norman Texts Liam Lewis, 2022 A redefinition of the animal's relationship to sound and language in French texts from medieval England The barks hoots and howls of animals and birds pierce through the experience of medieval texts In captivating episodes of communication between species a mandrake shrieks when uprooted from the ground a saint preaches to the animals and a cuckoo causes turmoil at the parliament of birds with his familiar call

This book considers a range of such episodes in Old French verse texts including bestiaries treatises on language the Life of Saint Francis of Assisi and the Fables by Marie de France aiming to reconceptualize and reinterpret animal soundscapes It argues that they draw on sound to produce competing perspectives forms of life and linguistic subjectivities suggesting that humans owe more to animal sounds than we are disposed to believe Texts inviting readers to listen and learn animal noises to seek spiritual consolation in the jargon of birds or to identify with the speaking wolf create the conditions for an assertion of human exceptionalism even as they simultaneously invite readers to question such forms of control By asking what it means for an animal to cry make noise or speak in French this book provides an important resource for theorizing sound and animality in multilingual medieval contexts and for understanding the animal s role in the interpretation of the natural world
