

Wild Geese

You do not have to be good.

You do not have to walk on your knees
for a hundred miles through the desert repenting.
You only have to let the soft animal of your body
love what it loves.

Tell me about despair, yours, and I will tell you mine.

Meanwhile the world goes on.

Meanwhile the sun and the clear pebbles of the rain
are moving across the landscapes,
over the prairies and the deep trees,
the mountains and the rivers.

Meanwhile the wild geese, high in the clean blue air,
are heading home again.

Whoever you are, no matter how lonely,
the world offers itself to your imagination,
calls to you like the wild geese, harsh and exciting -
over and over announcing your place
in the family of things.

Good Want Domenica Martinello,2024-05-21 What if poetry and prayer are the same intimate and inconclusive hopeful and useless a private communion that hooks you to the thrashing imperfect world Good Want entertains the notion that perhaps virtue is a myth that s outgrown its uses Exploring the value and shame ascribed to our desires both silly and serious artistic superficial spiritual relational these poems grapple with deeply rooted questions How can there be a relationship between goodness and godliness if god is a character with shifting allegiances and priorities Is clarity worth the pain of redefining your experience of the world Is privacy the same as secrecy the same as deceit Each caveat becomes a prayer ritual invocation dream or confession requiring a blind faith that feels increasingly more impossible to sustain Good Want looks inward at once both sincere and tongue in cheek to confront the hum of class and intergenerational trauma Playing with and deconstructing received notions of good bad and god these poems open up a series of further possibilities empathy for difficult people acceptance of our difficult selves and joy in every difficult thing These are lush provocative poems that luxuriate in unexpected detail while examining how economic precarity shapes both shame and desire Firmly rooted in the working class Martinello explores the hunger we inherit from our ancestors what it means to indulge from a position of bottomless want and to Waste not your wanting With impressive range a sense of humor and entrancing musicality Good Want is a celebration of the gluttony of girlhood the paradoxes of faith and everyday pleasures of a small specific life Cassidy McFadzean author of Crying Dress Good Want is a baroque painting of Dutch aristocracy but all the subjects garments are secretly from Walmart I mean this in the best way Each poem cracks me open and out shines a never before seen shade of light Shy Watson author of Cheap Yellow Sometimes the confessor reckons with the confessional In Good Want it s a wracking and lucky sometimes full of piss and vinegar and one that finds Domenica Martinello performing the wonderment the depth and push and pull between what there is to reveal and what each revelation ruptures or binds Happily sadly the poet scours a life lived and unearths inheritances burdens and selves destined for and not for the telling And tells them brilliantly as she pleases D M Bradford author of Bottom Rail on Top
