Will Our Children Have Faith Third Revised Edition:

Will Our Children Have Faith? John H. Westerhoff, 2012-08-01 This classic critique of Christian education is revised expanded and includes Westerhoff's overview on the state Christian education over the past forty years According to Westerhoff instead of guiding faith formation within the family the church and the school we relegate religious education to Sunday morning classes There children learn the facts about religion but how will they learn or experience faith How can we nourish and nurture the faith of children instead of only teaching the facts The Prayer Book Guide to Christian Education, Third Edition Sharon Ely Pearson, Robyn Szoke, 2009-05-01 While this one volume guide is especially useful for Christian educators showing them how to teach week by week according to the ethos and tradition of the Episcopal Church it also provides a valuable and useful reference tool for all church leaders and members in connecting Christian faith to daily life This new guide to Christian education and formation is based on the Book of Common Prayer the cornerstone of Anglican liturgy and theology Keyed to the Revised Common Lectionary all activities and lessons are structured on the seasons and lessons for Years A B and C The guide stresses the major themes of baptismal theology and shows how teachers parents and children can live the liturgical cycle in Christian formation ministries at church and at home These Are Our Bodies,

Foundation Book Leslie Choplin, Jenny Beaumont, 2016-08-01 Easily accessible theologically progressive mainline Christian Education resource on human sexuality Our inherent value and worth comes from God's love for us but our modern world is filled with sexual expression that too often leads us away from the life of Christ As Christians seeking to live a life worthy of our calling and desiring to pass along these values to our children and youth this book explores how we as parents and adults can explore issues of sexuality in the context of our faith A sexuality education resource from a mainline progressive denominational perspective aids the adult reader teacher parent in learning and using skills that enable them to embrace and affirm the wholeness of sexuality and to talk openly and honestly about the connection of sexuality and faith This book grounded from a theological perspective focuses on foundational issues for addressing how we and why we are called to have these conversations in a faithful community to support families The importance of looking at one's sexuality throughout the lifespan through the lenses of decision making faith and daily life respect growth and change behavior responsibility values prayer and intentionality is explored offering a grounding as well as stand alone resource for individuals and churches to build upon Ministry with Youth in Crisis, Revised Edition Harley T. Atkinson, W. Lee Barnett, Michael Severe, 2016-11-09 Ministry with Youth in Crisis is a comprehensive treatment of major adolescent crises related to life themes including self identity faith formation family life social relationships sexuality suicide substance abuse and eating disorders The distinctiveness of this book is that it offers a fine blend of solid research workable theory and specific strategies for successfully ministering to and with youth in crisis Furthermore it emphasizes the caring and sensitive side of working effectively with adolescents experiencing both normal and extreme crisis situations This volume therefore is both descriptive and prescriptive in nature in that it describes the world teens live in and offers biblical responses for ministry

Questioning Our Faith in Practice Katherine Turpin, 2024-10-07 Practical theology emerged as a discipline steeped in white supremacy traces of which can be found in some of its most central practices and habits of mind Identifying the remnants of this legacy allows practical theologians to begin to imagine how to proceed without reinscribing narratives of white saviors unlimited progress dominating control of bodies and individual heroic leadership You are invited to question this worldview while learning from scholars imagining a decolonized future Speaking Our Faith Kit Carlson, 2018-03-17

Ways to help Episcopalians articulate and feel comfortable about speaking of their faith with others Today in a rapidly changing religious landscape the structures of Christendom which once almost automatically instilled faith in generation after generation of believers are gone For faithful Episcopalians it has become essential to learn how to tell the old old story of Jesus and his love This is especially important for those generations born after the Baby Boom which are experiencing the rapid rise of the nones people who have lost their faith or who have no faith at all The time to speak to share our faith is now Kit Carlson offers a road map for those who want to learn to speak about the faith that lives within them Speaking Our Faith will help them put words to their own experiences of God create their own statements of belief and to begin to have compassionate caring conversations with other people about spirituality belief and Jesus Christ Little Steps, Big Faith Dawn Rundman Ph.D., 2018-10-02 From brain science to language development and social skills we've never known more about how children's minds develop in the first five years of life Yet with all the information available Christian parents may find themselves confused about how to apply these learnings to daily life with their children In Little Steps Big Faith early childhood expert Dr Dawn Rundman navigates the research to arrive at surprising insights about how very young children experience God and how parents can use science to teach faith Experience Matthew Floding, Dawn Davis, 2024-11-05

Spiritual formation has gained increasing attention with theological schools as a significant element of the theological education process Repeated Association of Theological Schools studies have revealed a broad interpretation of what is meant by spiritual formation and how it is achieved within the theological education framework Theological schools look to what happens in the field education courses as the most significant source of spiritual formation Experience Spiritual Formation in Theological Field Education provides effective resources that field educators may employ to foster spiritual formation In the first section of the book twenty five practices are introduced that are employed currently by field educators with strong favorable student feedback In a second section ministerial leaders in a variety of settings share spiritual practices that they have found life giving and foster deeper connection with God and God's world Experience equips field educators for the significant task of fostering the spiritual growth of their students Students in turn will have a treasure trove of spiritual formation exercises practices that they can adapt as ministerial leaders in congregations chaplaincy settings and in faith based non profit organizations Godly Play in Middle and Late Childhood Cheryl V. Minor, 2022-07-12 An internationally recognized Christian formation program This latest addition to the Godly Play series focuses on methods for mentors to use with school aged children to keep them engaged including adaptations to the environment adding more stories offering more sophisticated materials for free art responses and more There are compelling reasons for doing Godly Play with this age group and this book shows you how Praise for the Godly Play series Jerome Berryman recognizes the inherent spirituality of childhood and his message in this book empowers parents and caregivers to nurture their children s connection to their place of belonging in God s ongoing story Christian Education Journal Jerome Berryman s work helps children internalize the Christian tradition and then offers them the opportunity to use that tradition in their daily living Rev Jim Carr Methodist Minister San Antonio The Living Church ,1961
