

The background of the slide is a composite of two landscape photographs. The top half shows a grassy hill with a single, large, dark tree standing prominently. In the distance, a small, dark, rectangular building is visible. The sky is filled with heavy, dark clouds. The bottom half of the slide shows a similar landscape with a lone tree on a hill, but the sky is more dramatic, with dark, swirling clouds. The foreground is a field of tall, golden-brown grass. A small, dark, rectangular building is visible in the distance. The overall mood is somber and atmospheric.

Winifred Gerin Biographer Helen MacEwan:

Winifred Gerin Helen MacEwan, 2015-10-22 The biographer Winifred Gerin 1901-81 who wrote the lives of all four Brontë siblings stumbled on her literary vocation on a visit to Haworth after a difficult decade following the death of her first husband. On the same visit she met her second husband, a Brontë enthusiast twenty years her junior. Together they turned their backs on London to live within sight of the Parsonage, Gerin believing that full understanding of the Brontës required total immersion in their environment. Gerin's childhood and youth like the Brontës was characterised by a cultured home and intense imaginative life shared with her sister and two brothers and by family tragedies: the loss of two siblings in early life. Strong cultural influences formed the children's imagination: polyglot parents, French history, the Crystal Palace, Old Vic productions. Winifred's years at Newnham College, Cambridge were enlivened by eccentric characters such as the legendary lecturer Quiller Couch, Q. Lytton Strachey's sister Pernel and Bloomsbury's favourite philosopher G. E. Moore. Her happy life in Paris with her Belgian cellist husband Eugene Gerin was brought to an abrupt end by the Second World War in which the couple had many adventures fleeing occupied Belgium, saving Jews in Nice, in Vichy France, escaping through Spain and Portugal to England where they did secret war work for Political Intelligence near Bletchley. After Eugene's death in 1945 Winifred coped with bereavement through poetry and playwriting until discovering her true literary métier on the trip to Haworth. She also wrote about Elizabeth Gaskell, Anne Thackeray Ritchie and Fanny Burney. The book is based on her letters and on her unpublished memoir. Books in Print, 1961
