

Mrs. Janine Adcroft
HEAD TEACHER

Good luck to all our Year 6 pupils, you have truly matured and are ready to start on the next stage of your learning. Your success is evidence of the school and families working together to demonstrate our core values of Respect, Commitment and Engagement. You have talents and abilities that a lot cannot measure, you have skills, empathy, understanding and compassion, you have a deep understanding of who you are, your rights and responsibilities. You know that to gain respect, you need to offer it and we are very proud of all of you.

We will miss every one of you and look forward to seeing you return with news of great success and wonderful achievements both academically and personally.

I wish you continued success in all you do and believe that wherever you go you will always have a little bit of Faversham with you.

Best wishes,
Janine Adcroft
