According to George Jackson black men born in the US are conditioned to accept the inevitability of being imprisoned Being born a slave in a captive society and never experiencing any objective basis for expectation had the effect of preparing me for the progressively traumatic misfortune that led so many black men to the prison gate I was prepared for prison It required only minor psychic adjustments As Jackson writes from his prison cell his statement may seem to be only a product of his current status However history proves his point Indeed some of the most well known and respected black men have served time in jail or prison Among them are Martin Luther King Jr Malcolm X Marcus Garvey and Frederick Douglass This book is an examination of the various forms that imprisonment as a social historical and political experience of African Americans has taken Confinement describes the status of individuals who are placed within boundaries either seen or unseen but always felt A word that suggests extensive implications confinement describes the status of persons who are imprisoned and who are unjustly relegated to a social status that is hostile rendering them powerless and subject to the rules of the authorities Arguably confinement appropriately describes the status of African Americans who have endured spaces of confinement which include but are not limited to plantations Jim Crow societies and prisons At specific times these spaces of confinement have been used to oppress African Americans socially politically and spiritually Contributors examine the related experiences of Malcolm X Bigger Thomas of Native Son and Angela Davis Great Books for High School Kids Rick Ayers,Amy Crawford,2004-05-15 Teachers Rick Ayers and Amy Crawford always wanted to find a guide to the vast world of great books for teenagers one that didn t talk down or moralize When they couldn t find one they set out to create it An early prototype offered at Cody s Bookstore in Berkeley California was an instant success Great Books for High School Kids is the culmination of their efforts Collecting recommendations and essays from colleagues and advisers around the country this is a rollicking thoughtful against the grain guide that challenges stodgy notions of what great books are and what kids are ready for The book starts with seven essays by high school teachers about exciting exemplary experiences they have had reading books with students in the classroom from Dorothy Allison's Bastard Out of Carolina to Toni Morrison's Song of Solomon to Aeschylus's Oresteia trilogy Augmented by an index of more than seventy subjects the book also has an annotated list of hundreds of Recommended Great Books The recommendations are playful and irreverent ambitious and entertaining and they go way beyond traditional reading lists From classics to the unexpected from literary novels to nonfiction some drama and even a little poetry these are all books that teenagers have read with pleasure and can read on their own Great Books for High School Kids is an invitation and a sourcebook for inspiring passionate lifelong readers a book that could seriously change the lives of teachers of families and of kids

Questions of Identity in Detective Fiction Anita Higgin, Linda Martz, 2009-03-26 With essays by an international group of scholars Questions of Identity in Detective Fiction delves into the ways in which this genre given its status as popular yet marginalized literature allows for the exploration of a wide range of meanings Contributors examine how the genre both mirrors and focuses the personal sexual ethnic spiritual how it interfaces with national literatures and histories and how the generic identity of detective fiction has evolved over time Chapters include discussions of novels and short stories from American Argentine British Canadian French German and Japanese national literatures ranging from the mid 19th century to the early 21st century African American Literature Beyond Race Gene Andrew Jarrett, 2006-04 An anthology of 16 stories and excerpts from novels by African American writers includes critical essays on each author by a variety of scholars 100 Great American Novels You've \(Probably\) Never Read Karl Bridges, 2007-09-30 From Elizabeth Stoddard's The Morgesons and Anzia Yzierska's The Bread Givers to Laurie Colwin's Shine On Bright and Dangerous Object and Chet Raymo's The Dork of Cork here are some of the forgotten gems of American literature Bridges has compiled a diverse list of 100 American novels published between 1797 and 1997 and worthy of the title great Although the idea is to bring light to the obscure these titles are physically accessible to readers either in print or represented in library collections and available through library loan Novels: The insulted and injured Fyodor direct contact with the sources so far at least as that may be done through the medium of translations The primary aim of this book is to supply this need It is intended to serve either as a companion volume to any History of Philosophy that may be adopted as a text book or as a substitute for such a history where the instructor may prefer through his own lectures to give his own interpretation of this philosophical movement It is hoped that the book may also as a reference work prove of value to students of philosophy generally as well as to all who are interested in the development of ancient thought PsycINFO Database Record c 2008 APA all rights reserved Black on Black Chester B.
