Ten Notable Women of Modern Latin America James D. Henderson, Linda R. Henderson, Suzanne M. Litrel, 2023-10-27 In 1930s rural Argentina a determined fifteen year old left an isolated poverty stricken life to find her fortune in the Paris of South America Buenos Aires There with few connections little education but plenty of persistence Maria Eva Duarte gained a foothold in the city's artistic scene Eva Evita then navigated the radio revolution to fortune providing for her mother and siblings along the way She caught the eye of rising political star Colonel Juan Peron and with him she rode the pro labor wave all the way to the presidential palace The story of Eva Duarte Peron highlights not just her own extraordinary life but the opportunities seized by women of all classes and backgrounds in post independence modernizing Latin America This work offers an alternate method for understanding modern Latin America and its history The ten figures treated are ethnically mixed of African Indigenous European and mestiza heritage They include figures from all social classes geographic settings and occupations seen in Latin America and they acted over the entirety of the more than two centuries of the modern period Through their stories the reader comes away with a deeper understanding of this rich diverse region Writing in the Air Antonio Cornejo Polar, 2013-05-13 Originally published in 1994 Writing in the Air is one of the most significant books of modern Latin American literary and cultural criticism In this seminal work the influential Latin American literary critic Antonio Cornejo Polar offers the most extended articulation of his efforts to displace notions of hybridity or mestizaje dominant in Latin American cultural studies with the concept of heterogeneity the persistent interaction of cultural difference that cannot be resolved in synthesis He reexamines encounters between Spanish and indigenous Andean cultural systems in the New World from the Conquest into the 1980s Through innovative readings of narratives of conquest and liberation homogenizing nineteenth and twentieth century discourses and contemporary Andean literature he rejects the dominance of the written word over oral literature Cornejo Polar decenters literature as the primary marker of Latin American cultural identity emphasizing instead the interlacing of multiple narratives that generates the heterogeneity of
