Psychological Aspects of Social Axioms Kwok Leung, Michael Harris Bond, 2008-12-29 Humans are surrounded by trillions of stimuli Their eyes for instance can discriminate 7 500 000 colors But there is a severe limitation in the number of discriminably different stimuli that they can process at one time George Miller argued that they can handle no more than seven plus or minus two independent pieces of information at any given time Thus necessarily they must develop ways to simplify the task of processing the information that exists in their environment They do this in many ways One way is to select the stimuli that are most important in their lives what are often called values Another way is to chunk stimuli by linking them to each other so they form bundles of stimuli that can be processed as if they are one entity Generalized expectancies of what is linked with what are beliefs and these beliefs are structured into bundles see Triandis 1972

Fundamental Questions in Cross-Cultural Psychology Fons J. R. van de Vijver, Athanasios Chasiotis, Seger M. Breugelmans, 2011-03-17 Cross cultural psychology has come of age as a scientific discipline but how has it developed The field has moved from exploratory studies in which researchers were mainly interested in finding differences in psychological functioning without any clear expectation to detailed hypothesis tests of theories of cross cultural differences This book takes stock of the large number of empirical studies conducted over the last decades to evaluate the current state of the field Specialists from various domains provide an overview of their area linking it to the fundamental questions of cross cultural psychology such as how individuals and their cultures are linked how the link evolves during development and what the methodological challenges of the field are This book will appeal to academic researchers and post graduates interested in cross cultural research      Disenchantment with Democracy Janusz Reykowski,2020-03-26 Drawing on the knowledge accumulated in social and political psychology this book scrutinizes the rise in destructive conflicts in recent years and the use of violence as a means to power The book also addresses the imperfections of liberal institutions which can exacerbate these divides providing crucial context for understanding contemporary political tensions and their effects on the world s democracies

Women Writing Trauma in the Global South Annemarie Pabel,2022-09-08 Through exploring complex suffering in the writings of Aminatta Forna Isabel Allende and Anuradha Roy Women Writing Trauma in the Global South dismantles conceptual shortcomings and problematic imbalances at the core of existing theorizations around psychological trauma The global constellation of women writers from Sierra Leone Chile and India facilitates a productive analysis of how the texts navigate intertwined experiences of individual and systemic trauma The discussion departs from a recent critical turn in literary and cultural trauma studies and transgresses many interrelated boundaries of geocultural contexts language and genre Discovering the role of literary forms in reparative articulation and empathic witnessing this critical intervention develops new ideas for an inclusive conceptual expansion of trauma from the global peripheries and contributes to the ongoing debate on marginalized suffering

Parenting from Afar and the Reconfiguration of Family Across Distance Maria Rosario T. De Guzman,Jill Rena Brown,Carolyn P. Edwards,2018 An increasing number of families around the world are now living apart from one another subsequently causing the defining and redefining of their relationships roles within the family unit and how to effectively maintain a sense of familial cohesion through distance Edited by Maria Rosario T de Guzman Jill Brown and Carolyn Pope Edwards Parenting From Afar and the Reconfiguration of Family Across Distance uniquely highlights how families both in times of crisis and within normative cultural practices organize and configure themselves and their parenting through physical separation In this volume readers are given a unique look into the lives of families around the world that are affected by separation due to a wide range of circumstances including economic migration fosterage divorce military deployment education and orphanhood Contributing authors from the fields of psychology anthropology sociology education and geography all delve deep into the daily realities of these families and share insight on why they live apart from one another how families are redefined across long distances and the impact absence has on various members within the unit An especially timely volume Parenting From Afar and the Reconfiguration of Family Across Distance offers readers an important understanding and examination of family life in response to social change and shifts in the caregiving context Re-Authoring Life Narratives After Trauma: A Holistic Narrative Model of Care Charles B.

Manda,2019-12-12 Re authoring Life Narratives after Trauma is an interdisciplinary specialist resource for traumatic stress researchers practitioners and frontline workers who focus their research and work on communities from diverse religious backgrounds that are confronted with trauma death illness and other existential crises This book aims to argue that the biopsychosocial approach is limited in scope when it comes to reaching a holistic model of assessing and treating individuals and communities that are exposed to trauma The holistic model must integrate an understanding of and respect for the many forms of religion and spirituality that clients might have Pargament 2011 It will not only bring a spiritual perspective into the psychotherapeutic dialogue but it will also assist in dealing with the different demands in pastoral ministry as related to clinical and post traumatic settings The book makes several contributions to scholarship in the disciplines of although not limited to traumatic stress studies pastoral care and counselling psychology and psychiatry Firstly the book brings spirituality into the psychotherapeutic dialogue traditionally religious and spiritual topics have not been a welcome part of the psychotherapeutic dialogue Secondly it underscores the significance of documenting literary narratives as a means of healing trauma writing about our traumas enables us to express things that cannot be conveyed in words and to bring to light what has been suppressed and imagine new possibilities of living meaningfully in a changed world Thirdly it proposes an extension to the five stage model of trauma and recovery coined by Judith Herman Encyclopedia of Trauma Charles R.

Figley,2012-06-19 Trauma is defined as a sudden potentially deadly experience often leaving lasting troubling memories Traumatology the study of trauma its effects and methods to modify effects is exploding in terms of published works and expanding in terms of scope Originally a narrow specialty within emergency medicine the field now extends to trauma psychology military psychiatry and behavioral health post traumatic stress and stress disorders trauma social work disaster mental health and most recently the subfield of history and trauma with sociohistorical examination of long term effects and meanings of major traumas experienced by whole communities and nations both natural Pompeii Hurricane Katrina and man made the Holocaust 9 11 One reason for this expansion involves important scientific breakthroughs in detecting the neurobiology of trauma that is connecting biology with human behavior which in turn is applicable to all fields involving human thought and response including but not limited to psychiatry medicine and the health sciences the social and behavioral sciences the humanities and law Researchers within these fields and more can contribute to a universal understanding of immediate and long term consequences both good and bad of trauma both for individuals and for broader communities and institutions Trauma encyclopedias published to date all center around psychological trauma and its emotional effects on the individual as a disabling or mental disorder requiring mental health services This element is vital and has benefited from scientific and professional breakthroughs in theory research and applications Our encyclopedia certainly will cover this central element but our expanded conceptualization will include the other disciplines and will move beyond the individual
