Mothership Greg Wrenn, 2024-03-26 A dazzling evidence based account of one man's quest to heal from complex PTSD by turning to endangered coral reefs and psychedelic plants after traditional therapies failed and his awakening to the need for us to heal the planet as well Professor Greg Wrenn likes to tell his nature writing students The ecological is personal and the personal is ecological What he's never told them is how he's lived out those correspondences to heal from childhood abuse at the hands of his mother Weaving together memoir and cutting edge science Mothership is not just a queer coming of age story It's a deeply researched account of how coral reefs and a psychedelic tea called ayahuasca helped Greg heal from complex PTSD a disorder of trust which makes the very act of bonding with someone else panic inducing From the tide pools in Florida where he grew up to Indonesia's Raja Ampat archipelago and the Amazon rainforest this is his search for wholeness when talk therapy and pharmaceuticals did little to help Along the way as his ecological conscience wakes up he takes readers underwater to the last pristine reefs on earth and into the psyche Written with prophetic urgency Mothership ultimately asks if doses of nature will be enough to save us before it's too late

Weaving Words into Worlds Caroline Durand-Rous, Margot Lauwers, 2023-10-10 Weaving Words into Worlds comes as the third spinoff of the international ecopoetics conference organized in Perpignan in 2016 Reflecting upon how the many stories we tell directly influence the world we live in each of the contributions in this international volume directs our attention to the constant ecopoetic weaving of word to the world at work via the many entanglements between mind matter and meaning whether on a local or a global scale It encapsulates how the words stories and concepts we humans articulate as we try to make sense of the world we inhabit give part of its shape to the web of ecological relations that we depend on for survival It seeks to cast light on the disenchanting and reenchancing powers of stories and poesis in general as stories retain the power to make us either become oblivious to and destroy or to feel and honor the many complex ties between the multitudinous nature cultures intertwined within the fabric of a multispecies world always in the making This book offers a total of fourteen articles written by international scholars in ecocriticism and ecopoetics who by their analyses of literature and or films and the political subtext they thus render visible aim at showing how the study of environmentally minded media may renew our attention to the entangled agencies of the human and the more than human realm Thus this work offers to counter a reproach ecocriticism has often been met with namely the over presence of US scholars and the lack of diversity in subjects in the field since the articles presented provide a wide variety of approaches and topics with examples of UK and Native American literature Polynesian myth graphic novels or haiku In doing so the book expands on the fields of ecocriticism and ecopoetics adding to this branch of study and enriching it with high quality academic studies The Book
