Wild Wild Cheryl S.,2018-03-20 The trees were tall but I was taller standing above them on a steep mountain slope in northern California Moments before I d removed my hiking boots and the left one had fallen into those trees first catapulting into the air when my enormous backpack toppled onto it then skittering across the gravelly trail and flying over the edge It bounced off of a rocky outcropping several feet beneath me before disappearing into the forest canopy below impossible to retrieve I let out a stunned gasp though I d been in the wilderness thirty eight days and by then I d come to know that anything could happen and that everything would But that doesn t mean I wasn t shocked when it did My boot was gone Actually gone I clutched its mate to my chest like a baby though of course it was futile What is one boot without the other boot It is nothing It is useless an orphan forevermore and I could take no mercy on it It was a big lug of a thing of genuine heft a brown leather Raichle boot with a red lace and silver metal fasts I lifted it high and threw it with all my might and watched it fall into the lush trees and out of my life I was alone I was barefoot I was twenty six years old and an orphan too An actual stray a stranger had observed a couple of weeks before when I d told him my name and explained how very loose I was in the world My father left my life when I was six My mother died when I was twenty two In the wake of her death my stepfather morphed from the person I considered my dad into a man I only occasionally recognized My two siblings scattered

in their grief in spite of my efforts to hold us together until I gave up and scattered as well In the years before I pitched my boot over the edge of that mountain I d been pitching myself over the edge too I d ranged and roamed and railed from Minnesota to New York to Oregon and all across the West until at last I found myself bootless in the summer of 1995 not so much loose in the world as bound to it Wild Cheryl Strayed,2012-03-20 1 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER A powerful blazingly honest memoir the story of an eleven hundred mile solo hike that broke down a young woman reeling from catastrophe and built her back up again At twenty two Cheryl Strayed thought she had lost everything In the wake of her mother s death her family scattered and her own marriage was soon destroyed Four years later with nothing more to lose she made the most impulsive decision of her life With no experience or training driven only by blind will she would hike more than a thousand miles of the Pacific Crest Trail from the Mojave Desert through California and Oregon to Washington State and she would do it alone Told with suspense and style sparkling with warmth and humor Wild powerfully captures the terrors and pleasures of one young woman forging ahead against all odds on a journey that maddened strengthened and ultimately healed her Trail of the Lost Andrea Lankford,2023-08-22 From an award winning former law enforcement park ranger and investigator this female driven true crime adventure follows the author s quest to find missing hikers along the Pacific Crest Trail by pairing up with an eclectic group of unlikely allies As a park ranger with the National Park Service s law enforcement team Andrea Lankford led search and rescue missions in some of the most beautiful and dangerous landscapes across America from Yosemite to the Grand Canyon But though she had the support of the agency Andrea grew frustrated with the service s bureaucratic idiosyncrasies and left the force after twelve years Two decades later however she stumbles across a mystery that pulls her right back where she left off three young men have vanished from the Pacific Crest Trail the 2 650 mile trek made famous by Cheryl Strayed s Wild and no one has been able to find them It s bugging the hell out of her Andrea s concern soon leads her to a wild environment unlike any she s ever encountered missing person Facebook groups Andrea launches an investigation joining forces with an eclectic team of amateurs who are determined to solve the cases by land and by screen a mother of the missing a retired pharmacy manager and a mapmaker who monitors terrorist activity for the government Together they track the activities of kidnappers and murderers investigate a cult rescue a psychic in peril cross paths with an unconventional scientist and reunite an international fugitive with his family Searching for the missing is a brutal psychological and physical test with the highest stakes but eventually their hardships begin to bear strange fruits ones that lead them to places and people they never saw coming Beautifully written heartfelt and at times harrowing TRAIL OF THE LOST paints a vivid picture of hiker culture and its complicated relationship with the ever expanding online realm all while exploring the power and limits of determination generosity and hope It also offers a deep awe of the natural world even as it unearths just how vast and treacherous it can be On the TRAIL OF THE LOST you may not find what you are looking for but you will certainly find more than you seek THE INSTANT NEW YORK TIMES

BESTSELLER Alone in the Woods Micah Perks, 2013-12-20 What do you do when fate hands you a wild daughter As Micah recounts her struggles to raise a brave daughter and to keep her safe at the same time she also tells the story of her own sometimes humorous sometimes harrowing two week solo adventure in the Adirondack Mountains as a teenager Micah Perks candid short memoir takes an insightful look at women and the wild the wildness she experienced as a child on a commune in the Adirondack wilderness the ways women and wildness are depicted in movies and books like Cheryl Strayed's best selling memoir Wild and the wilderness she discovers inside her own daughter The Routledge International Handbook of Walking C. Michael Hall, Yael Ram, Noam Shoval, 2017-07-28 Walking is an essentially human activity From a basic means of transport and opportunity for leisure through to being a religious act walking has served as a significant philosophical literary and historical subject Thoreau's 1851 lecture on Walking or the Romantic walks of the Wordsworths at Grasmere in the early 19th Century for example helped create a philosophical foundation for the importance of the act of walking as an act of engagement with nature Similarly and sometimes inseparable from secular appreciation pilgrimage trails provide opportunities for finding self and others in the travails of the walk More recently walking has been embraced as a means of encouraging greater health and well being community improvement and more sustainable means of travel Yet despite the significance of the subject of walking there is as yet no integrated treatment of the subject in the social science literature This handbook therefore brings together a number of the main themes on the study of walking from different disciplines and literatures into a single volume that can be accessed from across the social sciences It is divided into five main sections culture society and historical context social practices perceptions and behaviours hiking trails and pilgrimage routes health well being and psychology and method planning and design Each of these highlights current approaches and major themes in research on walking in a range of different environments This handbook carves out a unique niche in the study of walking The international and cross disciplinary nature of the contributions of the book are expected to be of interest to numerous academic fields in the social and health sciences as well as to urban and regional planners and those in charge of the management of outdoor recreation and tourism globally Contemporary Ecocritical Methods Camilla Brudin Borg, Rikard Wingård, Jørgen Bruhn, 2024-04-30 Ecocriticism has grown into one of the most innovative and urgent fields of the humanities and many useful ecocritical methodological approaches for addressing our environmental crisis have been developed discussed and reconsidered Contemporary Methods in Ecocriticism exemplifies this methodological variety with fourteen chapters Underexposed! Josh Hull, PosterSpy, 2021-05-25 The untold stories behind the 50 greatest movies never made illustrated by 50 new and original posters Foreword by Fred Dekker For most films it's a long strange road from concept to screen and sometimes those roads lead to dead ends In Underexposed The 50 Greatest Movies Never Made screenwriter and filmmaker Joshua Hull guides readers through development hell With humor and reverence Hull details the speed bumps and roadblocks that kept these films from ever reaching the silver screen From the misguided and rejected like

Stanley Kubrick's Lord of the Rings starring the Beatles to films that changed hands and pulled a U turn in development like Steven Spielberg's planned Oldboy adaptation starring Will Smith to would be masterpieces that might still see the light of day like Guillermo del Toro's In the Mountains of Madness Hull discusses plotlines rumored casting and more To help bring these lost projects to life 50 artists from around the world in association with the online art collective PosterSpy have contributed original posters that accompany each essay and give a glimpse of what might have been
