Oldfield,2012-10-12 In 1792 400 000 people put their signature to petitions calling for the abolition of the slaves trade This work explains how this remarkable expression of support for black people was organized and orchestrated and how it contributed to the growth of popular politics in Britain Popular Politics and British Anti-slavery John R. Oldfield,1998 This work explains how the expression of support for black people in 1792 when 400 000 people called for the abolition of the slave trade was organized and orchestrated and how it contributed to the growth of popular politics in Britain The Standard Reference Work, for the Home, School and Library ... ,1927 The Making of the African Diaspora in the Americas, 1441-1900 Vincent Bakpetu Thompson,1987 This work examines the core period of the African diaspora in the Americas The author confronts myths surrounding the ethos of this diaspora which were induced by the mercantilist preoccupations of Western Europe The entire period is portrayed as a battle between two conflicting and opposite strategies that of the slavocracy and that of the enslaved Africans culminating in the conversion of the French colony of St Domingue into the revolutionary state of Haiti The author suggests that Haiti because of its position in the midst of hostile slave societies provided inspiration for the antislavery crusade in both its particularistic and its international aspects The epilogue provides a glimpse into the author's second book on the divergent perceptions in the early evolution of leadership in the African diaspora in the Americas Amazon.com viewed Oct 26 2022 The Standard Reference Work Harold Melvin Stanford, 1921

Childs, 2017-07-05 Compelling and troubling colorful and dark black figures served as the quintessential image of difference in nineteenth century European art the essays in this volume further the investigation of constructions of blackness during this period This collection marks a phase in the scholarship on images of blacks that moves beyond undifferentiated binaries like negative and positive that fail to reveal complexities contradictions and ambiguities Essays that cover the late eighteenth through the early twentieth century explore the visibility of blackness in anti slavery imagery black women in Orientalist art race and beauty in fin de siècle photography the French brand of blackface minstrelsy and a set of little known images of an African model by Edvard Munch In spite of the difficulty of resurrecting black lives in nineteenth century Europe one essay chronicles the rare instance of an American artist of color in mid nineteenth century Europe With analyses of works ranging from Gault's Raft of the Medusa to portraits of the American actor Ira Aldridge this volume provides new interpretations of nineteenth century representations of blacks Country Life, 1994 Salvation for the Twenty-First Century and Beyond Sandra Jeffery, 2010

Popularizing Classical Economics W.D. Sockwell, 2016-07-27 Popularizing Classical Economics analyzes the theoretical contributions of two British Economists Henry Brougham and William Ellis and describes how they popularized economic ideas from the early 1800s through the 1860s Efforts to spread economic ideas to the lay public have been little studied and few individuals have been recognized for their efforts This book traces the efforts of Brougham and Ellis to spread classical economic ideas through education of both adults and children London Plaques Derek Sumeray, John

Sheppard, 2011-08-20 London's buildings are dotted with commemorative plaques. Many are the famous blue plaques indicating where a famous person was born, lived, stayed, or if a significant event took place there, or an earlier use of the site. This book is a comprehensive gazetteer of all of London's plaques. Using Derek Sumeray's classic book as a basis, this thoroughly revised new edition arranges plaques alphabetically by area, providing a text that is linked to London's geography and therefore of greater use to a resident or visitor wanting to explore the famous people and events commemorated in that area.

Radical Sydney Terence H. Irving, Terry Irving, Rowan J. Cahill, 2010 Sydney a beautiful international city with impressive buildings, harbour side walkways, public gardens, cafes, restaurants, theatres, and hotels. This is the way Sydney is represented to its citizens and to the rest of the world. But there has always been another Sydney, not viewed so fondly by the city's rulers, a radical part of Sydney. The working class suburbs to the south and west of the city were large and explosive places of marginalised ideas, bohemian neighbourhoods, dissident politics, and contentious action. Through a series of snapshots, Radical Sydney traces its development from The Rocks in the 1830s to the inner suburbs of the 1980s. It includes a range of incidents, people, and places from freeing protestors in the anti-conscription movement, resident action movements in Kings Cross, anarchists in Glebe, to Gay Rights marches on Oxford Street and Black Power in Redfern. The Modern Review
