Yasunari Kawabata Palm Of The Hand Stories:

Palm-of-the-hand Stories Yasunari Kawabata, 1990 Recipient of the Nobel Prize in Literature in 1968 the novelist Yasunari Kawabata felt the essence of his art was to be found not in his longer works but in a series of short stories which he called Palm of the Hand Stories Written over the course of 50 years here sensitively translated are 70 of them most written in Kawabata's youth and usually no more than a page or two in length though the last one Gleanings from Snow Country is somewhat longer and was written just before Kawabata's suicide in 1972 it is a miniaturization of the highly praised novel of the same name The tales are variously realistic allegorical and fantastic and as in the novels the principal themes are love loneliness social change man's relation with nature and death Each story exhibits some sharp and often subtle perception of life in Kawabata's world stillness can resound and men listening to a woman's laugh can experience a strange kind of aural jealousy and each like a haiku or classic Zen painting suggests far more than it states The Dancing Girl of Izu and Other Stories Yasunari Kawabata, 1998-08-29 A collection of twenty three stories from one of the most influential figures in modern Japanese literature Yasunari Kawabata is widely known for his innovative short stories some called palm of the hand stories short enough to fit into one's palm This collection reflects Kawabata's keen perception deceptive simplicity and the deep melancholy that characterizes much of his work The stories were written between 1923 and 1929 and many feature autobiographical events and themes that reflect the painful losses he experienced early in his life Dandyism and Transcultural Modernity Hsiao-yen Peng, 2015-01-28 This book views the Neo Sensation mode of writing as a traveling genre or style that originated in France moved on to Japan and then to China The author contends that modernity is possible only on the transcultural site transcultural in the sense of breaking the divide between past and present elite and popular national and regional male and female literary and non literary inside and outside To illustrate the concept of transcultural modernity three icons are highlighted on the transcultural site the dandy the flaneur and the translator Mere flaneurs and flaneuses simply float with the tide of heterogeneous information on the transcultural site whereas the dandy flaneur and the cultural translator propellers of modernity manage to bring about transformative creation Their performance marks the essence of transcultural modernity the self consciousness of working on the threshold always testing the limits of boundaries and tempted to go beyond them To develop the concept of dandyism the quintessence of transcultural modernity the Neo Sensation gender triad formed by the dandy the modern girl and the modern boy is laid out Writers discussed include Liu Naou a Shanghai dandy par excellence from Taiwan Paul Morand who looked upon Coco Chanel the female dandy as his perfect other self and Yokomitsu Riichi who developed the theory of Neo Sensation from Kant's the thing in itself A Study Guide for Yasunari Kawabata's "The Jay" Gale, Cengage Learning, A Study Guide for Yasunari Kawabata's The Jay excerpted from Gale's acclaimed Short Stories for Students This concise study guide includes plot summary character analysis author biography study questions historical context suggestions for further reading and much more For any literature project trust
