50 Years Of The Chinese Community In Singapore Cheng Lian Pang,2015-10-23 Singapore s success story is essentially a people story Singaporeans have good reason to celebrate the nation s golden jubilee with pride In the short space of five decades the country has moved from Third World to First and its real GDP has grown by 40 times For this phenomenal progress credit must go to its people the Republic s primary resource Against all odds and amidst dire predictions Singaporeans proved that a united and resourceful community could build a nation from scratch This book is dedicated to one segment of these Singaporeans the Chinese community In particular this collection of essays focuses on the Chinese speaking members of the community whose many contributions are less familiar to those brought up on a strict diet of the English language This celebratory book is divided into four broad categories The first section examines the major Chinese organisations and their contributions in the past five decades These include the Singapore Chinese Chamber of Commerce Industry the Singapore Federation of Chinese Clan Associations the Chinese Development Assistance Council and the Chinese Heritage Centre In addition it looks at the history and work of some of the social clubs and charitable organisations in the Chinese community

The second section examines some community issues that have engaged the Chinese community in Singapore's first 50 years. Two senior journalists and two academics review the evolution of the Chinese language, the integration of new immigrants from China and the influence of Chinese religions. The five essays in the third section trace the development of Chinese visual and performing art in the Republic. The last section looks at the interactions between Singapore's Chinese community and China on the one hand and with the regional Chinese communities on the other. The contributors of this salute to the Chinese community have been directly involved or are passionate about the subjects of their essays.

Class and Politics in Malaysian and Singaporean Nation Building Muhamad M. N. Nadzri, 2025-05-23 Nadzri explores a range of factors that have influenced nation building in Malaysia and Singapore with principal emphasis on the importance of social and economic class In contrast to previous studies on nation building which overwhelmingly rely on the explanatory power of culture race and ethnic community the book foregrounds the importance of social and economic status The three main themes explored in this book are how the nation building projected in each country is driven by the class interests of its ruling elites how elections have impacted the politics of nation building and how each country's nation building policies are designed to build political loyalty and support for the ruling elites The comparability of analytical outcomes using the prism of class interests uncovers the limitations of the explanatory power of race ethnic community and culture in understanding the social and political dynamics of the two countries A valuable read for scholars and students of politics in Malaysia and Singapore that will also be of interest to scholars of comparative approaches to nation building

Singapore School Principals: Leadership Stories Zoe Suan Loy Boon, 2018-04-09 This book is undertaken by the author who has personally walked the journey of a classroom teacher middle leader and school principal in the Singapore education system It is a culmination of two research projects undertaken in two phases the first is derived from the PhD Thesis entitled The Making of School Principals in Singapore and the second is based on interviews with school principals who have retired from the Singapore education system Both research projects provide invaluable input to describe the four career phases of school leadership that is formation accession incumbency and divestiture This research describes how the formative years of a school principal have tremendous impact on who the principal is and how the values and beliefs of an aspiring potential school leader serve to guide him her in taking on the principalship post This well structured book is both exploratory and descriptive It provides the necessary background for anyone interested in understanding school leadership as a career More specifically it will be of value to educators and stakeholders interested in understanding the nature of school leadership in the Singapore education system Economic Bulletin ,1984
