

A person stands on a dark, silhouetted hill under a vast night sky. The Milky Way galaxy is visible, stretching across the upper half of the frame with a vibrant pink and purple hue. The lower half of the sky is a deep yellow-orange, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. The person's silhouette is centered in the lower half of the image, looking up at the stars.

Yesterday is history. Tomorrow is a mystery. Today is a gift.
That's why we call it the present.

American Women Sculptors Charlotte Streifer Rubinstein, 1990 In 1875 Anne Whitney traveled to Florence Italy to select the marble for a statue of Samuel Adams commissioned for the U S Capitol That summer in a small village outside Paris she noticed a woman who worked as a model for the local sculptors Not the typical artists model the woman was quite old and would often drowse while sitting for them her kerchiefed head fallen forward in sleep Later when Whitney returned to America she brought with her not only the completed statue for her respectable commission but the far less conventional Le Mod le a deeply human image of the old woman Created at a time when such subjects as the old and the poor were rarely given attention Whitney s sculpture is highly innovative for its day Charlotte Streifer Rubinstein s American Women Sculptors A History of Women Working in Three Dimensions chronicles the lives and works of hundreds of women such as Anne Whitney telling of their public successes their private sensibilities and visions their unique contributions to their chosen art form as women and as individuals Rich in anecdote and analysis the book brings to life their personal stories and the times they lived in to create an intimate yet wide reaching portrait It is the first comprehensive survey of the American woman s generous contribution to the sculpted form From small garden bronzes and portrait busts to large scale equestrian monuments and war memorials the works of American women sculptors stand in parks plazas and public buildings across the country Often struggling to overcome the persistent obstacle of sexism and for women of color racism these women took part in every significant art movement of their time they were neoclassicists who worked in marble in Rome modernists who brought cubism and abstract sculpture to the United States leaders among the artists of the Harlem Renaissance and abstract expressionists minimalists and installation artists Yet despite this continuous history of achievement their stories have gone largely untold their contributions often unrecognized As Rubenstein writes in her introduction How many of the thousands who pass Bethesda Fountain in Central Park know that it was created by a woman Rubenstein takes as her starting point in this history the expressive masks basketry and ceramics of pre Colonial Native American women rarely included in traditional art surveys Following are Patience Wright considered by many to be America s first professional sculptor the women sculptors of the Gilded Age whose creativity flourished under the influence of the suffrage movement the women who worked for the Federal Art Project during the Depression among the founding members of the Sculptor s Guild and such important abstract sculptors as Louise Nevelson and Louise Bourgeois The author concludes with the contributions of such young contemporary sculptors as Maya Lin whose Vietnam Veterans Memorial Wall has become one of the country s landmarks Both major and lesser known artists are included and the more conventional definitions of sculpture expanded to consider artists working in a variety of three dimensional forms Rubinstein discusses the works of weavers potters furniture carvers and even performance artists acknowledging the enormous influence women have had in these endeavors Throughout the book Rubinstein illuminates the works themselves and the artists techniques with detailed description and commentary while the text is complemented by more than 300 illustrations American Women Sculptors will be valued for the author s meticulous research and enjoyed for her appreciation of storytelling It celebrates a rich lively history Talking Books Provided by the Library of Congress American Foundation for the Blind,1968 First Person Female American Carolyn H. Adopting the Melody of Expression: An Emotional Symphony within Yesterday Is Tomorrow A Personal History

In some sort of consumed by monitors and the ceaseless chatter of fast communication, the melodic splendor and mental symphony produced by the published term often disappear in to the background, eclipsed by the persistent sound and disturbances that permeate our lives. But, set within the pages of Yesterday Is Tomorrow A Personal History a marvelous fictional value overflowing with fresh emotions, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Crafted by a masterful musician of language, that captivating masterpiece conducts viewers on a psychological trip, well unraveling the concealed songs and profound influence resonating within each cautiously constructed phrase. Within the depths of this moving assessment, we will examine the book is central harmonies, analyze its enthralling writing model, and submit ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
