

The background of the book cover is a stylized map of the United States. The landmasses are filled with a grid of small squares in various shades of green, brown, and pink. Overlaid on this grid are several concentric circles in shades of brown, red, and purple, resembling topographical contour lines or perhaps a stylized representation of the sun or moon. The circles are of varying sizes and are scattered across the map, with some appearing more prominent than others. The overall effect is a layered, textured map that combines geographical representation with abstract, artistic elements.
