To Speak is Never Neutral Luce Irigaray, 2017-09-25 Feminist philosopher linguist and psychoanalyst Luce Irigaray is renowned for her analyses of language studies that can be precise and poetic at the same time In this volume of her work on language linguistics and psychoanalysis she is concerned with developing a model that can reveal those unconscious or pre conscious structures that determine speech A key element of her method is the comparison of spoken and written language through which she teases out the sexual and social configurations of speech Gender, Madness, and Colonial Paranoia in Australian Literature Laura Deane, 2017-05-31 This book offers an original and compelling analysis of women s madness gender and the Australian family Taking up Anne McClintock s call for critical works that psychoanalyze colonialism this radical re assessment of novels by Christina Stead and Kate Grenville provides a sustained account of women s madness and masculine colonial psychosis from a feminist postcolonial perspective This book rethinks women s madness in the context of Australian colonialism Taking novels of madness by Christina Stead and Kate Grenville as its point of critical departure it applies a post Reconciliation lens to the study of Australia s gender and racial codes to place Australian sexism and misogyny in their proper colonial context Employing madness as a frame to rethink postcolonial theorizing in Australia Gender Madness and Colonial Paranoia in Australian Literature psychoanalyses colonialism to argue that Australia suffers from a cultural pathology based in the strategic forgetting of colonial violence This pathology takes the form of colonial paranoia about race and gender producing distorted gender codes and ways of being Australian This book maps the contours of Australian colonial paranoia weaving feminist literary theory psychoanalysis and postcolonial theory with poststructuralist approaches to reassess the traditional canon of critical madness scholarship and the place of women s writing within it This provocative work marks a radical departure from much recent feminist cultural and postcolonial criticism and will be essential reading for students of Australian literature cultural studies and gender studies wanting a new insight into how the Australian psyche is shaped by settler colonialism

Luce Irigaray and Premodern Culture Elizabeth D. Harvey, Theresa Krier, 2004-08-02 The essays in this groundbreaking collection stage conversations between the thought of the controversial feminist philosopher linguist and psychoanalyst Luce Irigaray and premodern writers ranging from Empedocles and Homer to Shakespeare Spenser and Donne They explore both the pre Enlightenment roots of Luce Irigaray s thought and the impact that her writings have had on our understanding of ancient medieval and Renaissance culture Luce Irigaray has been a major figure in Anglo American literary theory philosophy and gender studies ever since her germinal works Speculum of the Other Woman and This Sex Which Is Not One were published in English translation in 1985 This collection is the first sustained examination of Irigaray s crucial relationship to premodern discourses underpinning Western culture and of the transformative effect she has had on scholars working in pre Enlightenment periods Like Irigaray herself the essays work at the intersections of gender theory historicism and language This collection offers powerful ways of understanding premodern texts through Irigaray's theories that allow us to imagine our past and present relationship to economics science psychoanalysis gender ethics and social communities in new ways

Code Bernard Dionysius Geoghegan, 2022-12-09 In Code Bernard Dionysius Geoghegan reconstructs how Progressive Era technocracy as well as crises of industrial democracy and colonialism shaped early accounts of cybernetics and digital media by theorists including Norbert Wiener Warren Weaver Margaret Mead Gregory Bateson Claude Lévi-Strauss Roman Jakobson Jacques Lacan Roland Barthes and Luce Irigaray His analysis casts light on how media practical research forged common epistemic cause in programs that stretched from 1930s interwar computing at MIT and eugenics to the proliferation of seminars and laboratories in 1960s Paris This mobilization ushered forth new fields of study such as structural anthropology family therapy and literary semiology while forming enduring intellectual affinities between the humanities and informatics With Code Geoghegan offers a new history of French theory and the digital humanities as transcontinental and political endeavors linking interwar colonial ethnography in Dutch Bali to French sciences in the throes of Cold War era decolonization and modernization

Shakespeare and Contemporary Fiction Barbara L. Estrin, 2012 As the first book to use fiction as theory Shakespeare and Contemporary Fiction reads backward to demonstrate how recent novelists redeploy founding and lyric plots to uncover a Shakespeare who similarly challenges the mythological homogeneity that scripts us

Braided Selves Pamela Cooper-White, 2011-06-10 What if we are more multiple as persons than traditional psychology has taught us to believe And what if our multiplicity is a part of how we are made in the very image of a loving relational multiple God How have modern Western notions of Oneness caused harm to both individuals and society And how can an appreciation of our multiplicity help liberate the voices of those who live at the margins both of society and within our own complex selves Braided Selves explores these questions from the perspectives of postmodern pastoral psychology and Trinitarian theology with implications for the practice of spiritual care counseling and psychotherapy This volume gathers ten years of essays on this theme by preeminent pastoral theologian Pamela Cooper White whose writings bring into dialogue postmodern feminist and psychoanalytic theory and constructive theology

Revolutionary Time Fanny Söderbäck, 2019-12-01 This book is the first to examine the relationship between time and sexual difference in the work of Julia Kristeva and Luce Irigaray Because of their association with reproduction embodiment and the survival of the species women have been confined to the cyclical time of nature a temporal model that is said to merely repeat itself Men on the other hand have been seen as bearers of linear time and as capable of change and progress Fanny Söderbäck argues that both these temporal models make change impossible because they either repeat or repress the past The model of time developed here revolutionary time aims at returning to and revitalizing the past so as to make possible a dynamic embodied present and a future pregnant with change Söderbäck stages an unprecedented conversation between Kristeva and Irigaray on issues of both time and difference and engages thinkers such as Simone de
