

An abstract painting featuring a vibrant green heart shape floating in the center of a turbulent blue sea. The sea is depicted with thick, expressive brushstrokes in various shades of blue. Below the sea, a sandy beach is shown in warm tones of orange, red, and brown, also rendered with visible brushwork. The overall composition is simple yet evocative, symbolizing hope or a central theme amidst a vast, dynamic world.

No Way to Die Linus Asong, 2009-09-15 What happens when a young man of talent and visions of greatness falls victim to a cruel set of circumstances over which he has no control No Way to Die is such a story Dennis Nunqam Ndendemajem gives up Even when he is given a second chance to start again he refuses to gather the broken pieces of his life together He refuses to rebuild and refuses to live But he also finds no way to die

Zintgraffs Explorations in Bamenda, Adamawa and the Benue Lands 1889/1892 E.M. Chilver, 2010-08-30 The following pages initially prepared for limited circulation in 1961 contain brief extracts and summaries of those parts of Eugen Zintgraffs book NORD KAMERUN 1895 of most interest concerning the colonial Bamenda and Wum Division Zintgraffs book the first by a European about the Grassfields has not been translated and is hard to get second hand In using these notes the following points should be borne in mind Zintgraffs knowledge of Bali Mungaka and Hausa was very slight and his discussions of character motives and political institutions are consequently superficial and open to criticisms He had no means of checking what he was told or thought he was told He had no previous knowledge of any similar culture and no training in ethnographical method He was however a good observer and his descriptions of tools dress weapons and the like can be regarded as fairly reliable Finally it must be remembered that Zintgraff wrote the book to justify his own actions and to support that small but influential section of public opinion in Germany which favoured rapid imperial expansion A full account of the actions and motives of Zintgraffs opponents in the Kamerun Government and in the Colonial Bureau of the German Foreign Office has not been written we only have one side of the story But there are some suggestive points made in Rudins GERMAN IN THE CAMEROONS and others referred to in these notes What is perhaps most striking about Zintgraffs account is the fact that the people of the Western Grassfields were not so isolated from one another or their neighbours as might be thought A network of trade friendships covered the country and big men exchanged gifts over long distances These links must be set beside the insecurity due to raids and slave catching and are well worth investigation

Stereotyping Africa. Surprising Answers to Surprising Questions Emmanuel Fru Doh, 2009 This book deals with an interesting but also painful topic the stereotyping of Africa in the West notably in the United States of America This is a laudable initiative a timely and courageous effort to deal with long standing stereotypes in the West Dr Piet Konings Sociologist African Studies Centre Leiden Challenge of Culture in Africa N. Fonlon, 2010-11-01 This book was first published as a two part essay in 1965 and 1967 in ABBIA Cameroon Cultural Review under the title Idea of Culture Its main argument is that indigenous Africans cultures must be the foundation on which the modern African cultural structure should be raised the soil into which the new seed should be sown the stem into which the new scion should be grafted the sap that should enliven the entire organism This culture the object of imperialist mockery and rejected needs rehabilitation However such rehabilitation of African culture cannot be a mere archaeological enterprise It will not answer to dig up the past and live it as it was Not only is African culture not without its imperfections times change and African culture must adapt itself at every turn to the changing times In restoring African culture it is imperative to steer clear of two extremes on the one hand the imperialist arrogance which declared everything African as only fit for the scrap heap and the dust bin and on the other hand the overly enthusiastic and rather naive tendency to laud every aspect of African culture as if it were the quintessence of human achievement The Betrayed Town and Other Poems Roselyne M.
