

The Mystery of Macy's Money

There are about nine million people in New York City, thought Detective Hanlon. All I have to do is find out who took $250,000 from the safe at Macy's Department Store.

There was a broken window in the office. The safe door was open. Detective Hanlon looked out the window. Outside on the ground, there were shards of glass. The carpet by the window was clean.

Just then, Charles Taylor, an assistant manager, walked in. Detective Hanlon noticed bandages on Taylor's hands. Taylor pulled the sleeve of his jacket over the bandages.

"I am sorry I wasn't here to meet you, detective. I don't know how this could have happened!" exclaimed Taylor.

"Do you always have this much money in the safe?" asked Hanlon.

"No, we were going to give bonuses to some of our employees," answered Taylor.

"Were you going to get a bonus, Mr. Taylor?" asked Hanlon.

"No, only the sales staff was going to get bonuses. I didn't think that was very fair. But then, my opinion doesn't matter much around here," replied Taylor.

"Who has the combination to the safe?" asked Hanlon.

"Only my supervisor, Harold Stevens, and I," answered Taylor. "Mr. Stevens just left for a vacation in Hawaii."

"I think that you will be going away for a while too, Mr. Taylor, but not to Hawaii," said Hanlon.

Think about it...

Hanlon knows who took the money. Do you?
