Inventing Beauty Teresa Riordan, 2004 A history of the clothing gadgets and other products that were designed to promote female beauty is a tour of such innovations as hoop skirts cosmetic surgery face cream and more in a volume that also discusses the contributions of social trends and technological innovation Original "Women, Femininity and Public Space in European Visual Culture, 1789-1914" Temma

Balducci, 2017-07-05 Focusing on images of or produced by well to do nineteenth century European women this volume explores genteel femininity as resistant to easy codification vis is the public Attending to various iterations of the public as space sphere and discourse sixteen essays challenge the false binary construct that has held the public as the sole preserve of prosperous men By contrast the essays collected in Women Femininity and Public Space in European Visual Culture 1789 1914 demonstrate that definitions of both femininity and the public were mutually defining and constantly shifting In examining the relationship between affluent women femininity and the public the essays gathered here consider works by an array of artists that includes canonical ones such as Mary Cassatt and Frans G r d as well as understudied women artists including Louise Abb and Broncia Koller The essays also consider works in a range of media from fashion prints and paintings to private journals and architectural designs facilitating an analysis of femininity in public across the cultural production of the period Various European centers including Madrid Florence Paris Brittany Berlin and London emerge as crucial sites of production for genteel femininity providing a long overdue rethinking of modern femininity in the public sphere

A Mad, Wicked Folly Sharon Biggs Waller, 2014-01-23 In Edwardian London a girl dreams of being an artist despite her family's disapproval Welcome to the world of the fabulously wealthy in London 1909 where dresses and houses are overwhelmingly opulent social class means everything and women are taught to be nothing more than wives and mothers Into this world comes seventeen year old Victoria Darling who wants only to be an artist a nearly impossible dream for a girl After Vicky poses nude for her illicit art class she is expelled from her French finishing school Shamed and scandalized her parents try to marry her off to the wealthy Edmund Carrick Humphrey But Vicky has other things on her mind her clandestine application to the Royal College of Art her participation in the suffragette movement and her growing attraction to a working class boy who may be her muse or may be the love of her life As the world of debutante balls corsets and high society obligations closes in around her Vicky must figure out just how much is she willing to sacrifice to pursue her dreams

Women, Femininity and Public Space in European Visual Culture, 1789-1914 Dr Temma Balducci, Asst Prof Heather Belnap Jensen, 2014-11-28 Focusing on images of or produced by nineteenth century European women this volume explores genteel femininity as resistant to easy codification vis vis the public Attending to various iterations of the public as space sphere and discourse sixteen essays challenge the false binary construct that has held the public as the sole preserve of prosperous men By considering works in a range of media by an array of canonical and understudied women artists they demonstrate that definitions of both femininity and the public were mutually defining and constantly shifting Cumulated Index to the Books, 1999 Survey of Historic Costume Phyllis G. Tortora, Keith Eubank, 2009-06-08 In the Preface of the 5th Edition of Survey of Historic Costume Tortora and Eubank conclude with the following In the history of dress at the beginning of the 21st century costume might be compared to a constantly moving river This river divides into many narrower channels that separate cross come together and separate again and yet that river continually moves on Building on the previous editions the authors update their analysis of Western dress to 2008 Survey of Historic Costume has from its beginnings taken seriously the need to accompany the text with appropriate illustrations and the major change in the 5th Edition is the move to full color throughout the book to enrich the text and the concepts Perfect for anyone interested in historic costume fashion textiles drama and design this beautifully illustrated book is full of interesting facts and commentary New to this Edition Over 500 four color photographs and illustrations Updated text to 2008 Additional influences from one period or civilization to another including influences from other cultures Index updated and organized to be utilized as glossary with terms defined and page numbers printed in boldface Instructor's Guide provides sources for visuals websites teaching strategies and evaluation techniques PowerPoint Presentation contains interactive visual presentation with links to Internet Warman's Antiques and Collectibles Price Guide Harry L. Rinker, 1996-04 An antiques price guide for more than 50 000 items with detailed descriptions Exquisite Materials Abigail Joseph, 2019-11-08 Exquisite Materials explores the connections between gay subjects material objects and the social and aesthetic landscapes in which they circulated Each of the book's four chapters takes up as a case study a figure or set of figures whose life and work dramatize different aspects of the unique queer relationship to materiality and style These diverse episodes converge around the contention that paying attention to the multitudinous objects of the Victorian world and to the social practices surrounding them reveals the boundaries and influences of queer forms of identity and aesthetic sensibility that emerged in the mid nineteenth century and have remained recognizable up to our own moment In the cases that author Abigail Joseph examines objects become unexpected sites of queer community and desire The Tailor's Daughter Janice Graham, 2007-09-18 In the tradition of the best historical novels comes a suspenseful Victorian tale about a spirited young deaf woman who defies convention by working as a gentlemen's Savile Row tailor 8 halftones Maussade Celeste Archer, 2014-11-17
