Victorian Women Poets Writing Against The Heart Victorian Literature And Culture Series:

Victorian Women Poets Angela Leighton,1992 Christian and Lyric Tradition in Victorian Women's Poetry F.

Elizabeth Gray,2009-09-10 In this study Gray examines the broadly neglected body of Victorian women's religious verse showing how women of the period used an array of inventive literary strategies to construct and wield provocative forms of authority Their deployment of biblical source trope and genre transfigured Christian and lyric traditions A Queer

Chivalry Julia F. Saville,2000 Others decry his monasticism as the regrettably oppressive regimen from which he was able to escape only occasionally through his sensuous sometimes overtly homoerotic verse Julia F Saville uses Lacanian theories of sublimation and courtly love to reconfigure this long standing rift in the field of Hopkins criticism BOOK JACKET The

Cambridge Companion to Victorian Women's Poetry Linda K. Hughes,2019-03-14 Inclusive cutting edge essay collection by leading scholars on Victorian women poets and their diverse poetic forms and identities Vernon Lee Vineta

Colby,2003-04-29 Vernon Lee born Violet Paget in 1856 to English parents who lived on the Continent bridged two worlds and many cultures She was a Victorian by birth but lived into the second quarter of the twentieth century Her chosen home was Italy but she spent part of every year in England where she published over the years an impressive number of books novels short stories travel essays studies of Italian art and music psychological aesthetics polemics She was widely recognized as a woman of letters and moved freely in major literary and social circles meeting and at times having close friendships with a huge number of the major writers and intellectuals of her time among them Robert Browning Walter Pater Henry James H G Wells Bertrand Russell Bernard Berenson and Mario Praz Although she never committed herself to one program of political activism she was an advocate for feminism and social reform and during World War I was an ardent pacifist In her last years she watched with dismay the emergence of fascism Vernon Lee A Literary Biography recovers this crowded and intellectually eventful life from her previously unpublished letters and journals as well as from her books themselves Vineta Colby also explores Lee's troubled personal life from her childhood in an eccentric expatriate family to her several unhappy love affairs with women to her frank recognition that her work brilliant as some of it was remained unappreciated Through it all Vernon Lee clung to her faith in the life of the mind and through Colby's engaging biographical narrative she emerges today as a writer worthy of renewed attention and admiration Victorian Literature and Culture Series

Animalities Michael Lundblad,2017-05-24 New and cutting edge work in animality studies human animal studies and posthumanism Representations of animality continue to proliferate in various kinds of literary and cultural texts This pioneering volume explores the critical interface between animal and animality studies marking out the terrain in relation to twentieth century literature and film The range of texts considered here is intentionally broad answering questions like how do contemporary writers such as Amitav Ghosh Terry Tempest Williams and Indra Sinha help us to think about not only animals but also humans as animals What kinds of creatures are being constructed by contemporary artists such as Patricia

Piccinini Alexis Rockman and Michael Pestel How do animalities animate such diverse texts as the poetry of two women publishing under the name of Michael Field or an early film by Thomas Edison depicting the electrocution of a circus elephant named Topsy Connecting these issues to fields as diverse as environmental studies and ecocriticism queer theory gender studies feminist theory illness and disability studies postcolonial theory and biopolitics the volume also raises further questions about disciplinarity itself while hoping to inspire further work beyond the human in future interdisciplinary scholarship

Key Features 10 provocative case studies focused on representations and discourses of animals and animality in twentieth and twenty first century literature art and film in English New work from both internationally renowned and emerging figures in the burgeoning fields of animality studies human animal studies and posthumanism suggesting innovative and significant new directions to explore

Broad introduction to the kinds of questions scholars in the humanities have considered in relation to animals and animality

The Genius of John Ruskin John Ruskin, John D. Rosenberg, 1997 This volume powerfully demonstrates the range and inexhaustible vitality of Ruskin's prose and will once again become an indispensable reference for Victorianists from a range of disciplines

Essays and Reviews Victor Shea, William Whitla, 2000 Essays and Reviews is a collection of seven articles that appeared in 1860 sparking a Victorian culture war that lasted for at least a decade With pieces written by such prominent Oxford and Cambridge intellectuals as Benjamin Jowett Mark Pattison Baden Powell and Frederick Temple later archbishop of Canterbury the volume engaged the relations between religious faith and current topics of the day in education the classics theology science history literature biblical studies hermeneutics philology politics and philosophy Upon publication the church the university the press the government and the courts both ecclesiastical and secular joined in an intense dispute The book signaled an intellectual and religious crisis raised influential issues of free speech and questioned the authority and control of the Anglican Church in Victorian society The collection became a best seller and led to three sensational heresy trials Although many historians and literary critics have identified Essays and Reviews as a pivotal text of high Victorianism until now it has been almost inaccessible to modern readers This first critical edition edited by Victor Shea and William Whitla provides extensive annotation to map the various positions on the controversies that the book provoked The editors place the volume in its complex social context and supply commentary background materials composition and publishing history textual notes and a broad range of new supporting documents including material from the trials manifestos satires and contemporary illustrations Not only does such an annotated critical edition of Essays and Reviews indicate the impact that the volume had on Victorian society it also sheds light on our own contemporary cultural institutions and controversies

The Private Rod Marlene Tromp, 2000 Sensation novels a genre characterized by scandalous narratives and emotionally and socially provocative dialogue and plots had their heyday in England in the 1860s and 1870s in the midst of growing concern about codes of behavior in marriage Exploring the central metaphor of marital violence in these novels Marlene Tromp uncovers the relationship between the representations of such violence in fiction and in the law Her investigation demonstrates that sensational constructions of gender marriage brutal relationships and even murder were gradually incorporated into legal debates and realist fiction as the Victorian understanding of what was real changed from publisher description Women's Studies Linda Krikos, Cindy Ingold, 2004-08-30 This truly monumental work maps the literature of women s studies covering thousands of titles and Web sites in 19 subject areas published between 1985 and 1999 Intended as a reference and collection development tool this bibliography provides a guide for women s studies information for each title along with a detailed often evaluative review The annotations summarize each work s content its importance or contribution to women s studies and its relationship to other titles on the subject Core titles and titles that are out of print are noted and reviews indicate which titles are appropriate as texts or supplemental texts This definitive guide to the literature of women s studies is a must purchase for academic libraries that support women s studies programs and it is a useful addition to any academic or public library that endeavors to represent the field A team of subject specialists has taken on the immense task of documenting publications in the area of women s studies in the last decades of the 20th century The result is this truly monumental work which maps the field covering thousands of titles and Web sites in 19 subject areas published between 1985 and 1999 Intended as a reference and collection development tool this bibliography provides a guide for women s studies information for each title along with a detailed often evaluative review The annotations summarize each work s content its importance or contribution to women s studies and its relationship to other titles on the subject Most reviews cite and describe similar and contrasting titles substantially extending the coverage Core titles and titles that are out of print are noted and reviews indicate which titles are appropriate as texts or supplemental texts Taking up where the previous volume by Loeb Searing and Stineman left off this is the definitive guide to the literature of women s studies It is a must purchase for academic libraries that support women s studies programs and a welcome addition to any academic or public library that endeavors to represent the field

Networking the Nation Alison Chapman, 2015-07-16 How did nineteenth century women s poetry shift from the poetess poetry of lyric effusion and hyper femininity to the muscular epic of Elizabeth Barrett Browning s Aurora Leigh Networking the Nation re writes women s poetic traditions by demonstrating the debt that Barrett Browning s revolutionary poetics owed to a circle of American and British women poets living in Florence and campaigning in their poetry and in their salons for Italian Unification These women poets Isa Blagden Elizabeth Kinney Eliza Ogilvy and Theodosia Garrow Trollope formed with Barrett Browning a network of poetry sociability and politics which was devoted to the mission of campaigning for Italy as an independent nation state In their poetic experiments with the active lyric voice in their forging of a transnational persona through the periodical press in their salons and spiritualist s ances the women poets formed a network that attempted to assert and perform an independent unified Italy in their work Networking the Nation maps the careers of these expatriate women poets who were based in Florence in the key years of Risorgimento politics racing their transnational social and print communities and the problematic but schismatic shift in their poetry from the conventional sphere of the poetess In the fraught and thrilling engagement with their adopted nation s revolutionary turmoil and in their experiments with different types of writing agency the women poets in this book offer revolutions of other kinds revolutions of women s poetry and the very act of writing

Prayer and Embodiment in Nineteenth-Century Women's Writing Elizabeth Ludlow,2025-02-20 In the 19th century an era that saw a reconfiguration of the relationship between the self the world and the divine women writers probed the theological depths of embodied faith in new ways through poetry fiction devotional prose and life writing Elizabeth Ludlow explores how through this process they articulated what it means to pray and thereby understand one s place in a world of individual and communal bodies The eight women writers discussed Elizabeth Barrett Browning Josephine Butler George Eliot Elizabeth Gaskell Dora Greenwell Felicia Hemans Adelaide Procter and Christina Rossetti provide accounts of prayer that stress that the only way to experience and respond to something of the transcendent is through embracing lived experience and through a recognition of the connectedness of all bodies In detailing how these writers engage with new ways of thinking about faith desire and the material world Ludlow argues that they offer models for ethical modes of being in the world and pave the way for later theologies of embodiment

Thinking Through Style Michael D. Hurley,Marcus Waithe,2018-01-05 What is style and how does it relate to thought in language It has often been treated as something merely linguistic independent of thought ornamental stylishness for its own sake Or else it has been said to subserve thought by mimicking delineating or heightening ideas that are already expressed in the words This ambitious and timely book explores a third more radical possibility in which style operates as a verbal mode of thinking through Rather than figure thought as primary and pre verbal and language as a secondary delivery system style is conceived here as having the capacity to clarify or generate thinking The book s generic focus is on non fiction prose and it looks across the long nineteenth century Leading scholars survey twenty authors to show where writers who have gained reputations as either stylists or as thinkers exploit the interplay between the what and the how of their prose The study demonstrates how celebrated stylists might after all have thoughts worth attending to and that distinguished thinkers might be enriched for us if we paid more due to their style More than reversing the conventional categories this innovative volume shows how style and thinking can be approached as a shared concern At a moment when especially in nineteenth century studies interest in style is re emerging this book reevaluates some of the most influential figures of that age re imagining the possible alliances interplays and generative tensions between thinking thinkers style and stylists

The Angel Out of the House Dorice

Williams Elliott, 2002 Elliott English U of Kansas examines how novels and other literary texts portray women in the middle and upper classes taking an active part in endeavors that were perceived to have important social economic and political consequences Such works she says helped produce and authorize women s desires to participate in such endeavors Her study began as a doctoral dissertation for Johns Hopkins University Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR
