Viet Cong Fighter Gordon L. Rottman, 2007-05-22 Osprey's study of the Viet Cong fighters of the Vietnam War 1955-1975. An enemy in the shadows the Viet Cong was the military arm of the National Liberation Front the Communist Party of the Republic of Vietnam. Often generally thought of as local guerrillas they were also an important part of the North Vietnamese Army regular cadres. Packed with emotive and rare photographs this book not only analyzes the skills and tactics of these fascinating fighters but also takes a look at their social origins to interpret how this affected their behavior as warriors. Gordon L. Rottman discusses the Viet Cong's recruitment and initial training their unique motivation their extensive political and psychological indoctrination and their distinct equipment and weaponry to provide a compelling and balanced account of these legendary guerrilla fighters.

Green Beret in Vietnam Gordon L. Rottman, 2012-06-20 Vietnam was the US Special Forces most complex and controversial mission one that began in 1957 and ended in 1973. Camp strike forces mobile strike forces mobile guerrilla forces special reconnaissance projects training missions and headquarters duty provided vastly differing experiences and circumstances for SF soldiers. Other fluctuating factors were the terrain the weather and the shifting course of the war itself. Gordon Rottman examines the training life weapons and combat experiences of the Special Forces soldier in this challenging environment.

Tunnel Rat in Vietnam Gordon L. Rottman, 2012-02-20 In 1965 soon after the first US combat troops had arrived in Vietnam it was realized that in some areas the Viet Cong had developed vast tunnel complexes in which to hide from the enemy. It was long known that such complexes existed but it was not realized just how extensive they were in some areas how important they were to the Viet Cong and how difficult it was to detect and neutralize them. At first infantrymen volunteered to enter the tunnels armed with only pistols and flashlights the tunnel runners were soon known to the Australians as tunnel ferrets. Starting as an ad hoc force of infantrymen combat engineers and chemical troops it was not long before units were formalized as tunnel exploration personnel and 4-6 man tunnel exploitation and denial teams were created. They came to be known simply as tunnel rats with the unofficial motto Non Gratum Anus Rodentium Not Worth a Rat's Ass. This title will be based on the personal accounts of those who served in this unique role and will describe the specialist training and equipment not to mention the tactics and combat experiences of those who fought an underground war against the Viet Cong in Vietnam.
