Metahumanism, Euro-Transhumanism and Sorgner's Philosophy Maurizio Balistreri, Aura Elena Schussler, 2024-01-01 This essay collection is a fascinating thorough and intellectually stimulating analysis of Stefan Lorenz Sorgner s theoretical frameworks and conceptualizations of Euro transhumanism metahumanism and the philosophy of posthuman art The contributors address the most challenging philosophical ethical and aesthetic issues in the field of trans critical post and metahumanism such as debates concerning

Nietzsche as a weak proto transhumanist potential risks and benefits of artificial intelligence brain computer interfaces and bio enhancements ecological crises space travel the use of human embryos for artistic purposes robots as artists humans as cyborgs and more This collection provides a critical introduction to Sorgner s philosophy as well as a complex intellectual engagement with the field of posthuman studies It is a rich reflective journey for all those interested in technology ethics art and the posthuman paradigm shift Posthumanism Alan Smart, Josephine Smart, 2017-01-01 Designed to explain posthumanism to those outside of academia this brief and accessible book makes an original argument about anthropology s legacy as a study of more than human Smart and Smart return to the holism of classic ethnographies where cattle pigs yams and sorcerers were central to the lives that were narrated by anthropologists but they extend the discussion to include contemporary issues like microbiomes the Anthropocene and nano machines which take holism beyond locally bounded spaces They outline what a holism without boundaries could look like and what anthropology could offer to the knowledge of more than human nature in the past present and future Japanese Horror and the Transnational Cinema of Sensations Steven T. Brown, 2018-02-05 Japanese Horror and the Transnational Cinema of Sensations undertakes a critical reassessment of Japanese horror cinema by attending to its intermediality and transnational hybridity in relation to world horror cinema Neither a conventional film history nor a thematic survey of Japanese horror cinema this study offers a transnational analysis of selected films from new angles that shed light on previously ignored aspects of the genre including sound design framing techniques and lighting as well as the slow attack and long release times of J horror s slow burn style which have contributed significantly to the development of its dread filled cinema of sensations The End of Transgression in Japanese Women's Writing David S. Holloway, 2024-12-31 This book argues for a new articulation of the ways in which transgression is theorized in contemporary literature by Japanese women Exploring the rhetorical and discursive mechanics of literary bad girls from fiction produced during the millennial turn 1990 2010 the book contends that women writers today deploy truant unruly restless and aggressive female protagonists not to challenge the status quo but rather to reaffirm it While Japanese women s fiction has long been invested in cultivating an uncomfortable politics of opposition through unladylike themes such as sex sexuality and violence the book argues that today authors turn to such acts of defiance to quietly advocate for the primacy of Japanese social order Showing how transgression has not only lost its political and disruptive valence in contemporary women s fiction this book further reveals how discourses of dissent can be retooled to promote a conservative worldview A fascinating literary analysis which reads Japanese literature in relation to the receding value of rebellion today this book will be of huge interest to students and scholars of Japanese literature gender and cultural studies
