Veterans And Homelessness:

Veterans and Homelessness , Veterans and Homelessness Howard Connel, Fred Sher, 2012-03 The wars in Iraq and Afghanistan have brought renewed attention to the needs of veterans including the needs of homeless veterans Preventing and ending homelessness among Veterans in five years is a key priority for the White House as well as the United States Interagency Council on Homelessness and its member agencies This book addresses this need in showcasing novel analyses that use data currently available from administrative records to provide detailed information about the prevalence of Veterans within the homeless population the prevalence of homelessness among Veterans and the differential risks for homelessness among Veteran age race poverty and sex subgroups Veterans and Homelessness Howard Connel, Fred Sher, 2011 The wars in Iraq and Afghanistan have brought renewed attention to the needs of veterans including the needs of homeless veterans Preventing and ending homelessness among Veterans in five years is a key priority for the White House as well as the United States Interagency Council on Homelessness and its member agencies This book addresses this need in showcasing novel analyses that use data currently available from administrative records to provide detailed information about the prevalence of Veterans within the homeless population the prevalence of homelessness among Veterans and the differential risks for homelessness among Veteran age race poverty and sex subgroups Homelessness Among U.S. Veterans Jack Tsai, 2018-11-15 A SWEEPING NEW RESOURCE FOR UNDERSTANDING THE U S VETERAN HOMELESSNESS EPIDEMIC Homelessness Among U S Veterans synthesizes the new glut of research on veteran homelessness geographic trends root causes effective and ineffective interventions to mitigate it in a format that provides a needed reference as this public health fight continues to be fought Codifying the data and research from the U S Department of Veterans Affairs VA campaign to end veteran homelessness psychiatrist Jack Tsai links disparate lines of research to produce an advanced and elegant resource on a defining social issue of our time Veterans and Homelessness Libby Perl, 2013-02-12 CRS Report for Congress Veterans and Homelessness.. Library of Congress. Congressional Research Service, 2010 Defines term homeless veteran discusses attempts to count homeless veterans and reviews results of studies regarding characteristics of homeless veterans Summarizes available research regarding overrepresentation of veterans in the homeless population and possible explanations for why homeless veterans are overrepresented Discusses VA collaborative VA HUD and DOL programs to fund services and transitional housing specifically for homeless veterans and addresses emerging issues regarding permanent supportive housing veterans of wars in Iraq and Afghanistan female veterans and VA plan to end veteran homelessness A National Commitment to End Veterans' Homelessness United States. Congress. House. Committee on Veterans' Affairs, 2009 Veterans and Homelessness , 2007 The current conflicts in Iraq and Afghanistan have brought renewed attention to the needs of veterans including the needs of homeless veterans The Department of Veteran Affairs VA estimates that it has served approximately 300 returning veterans in its homeless programs and has identified over 1 000 more as being at risk of homelessness Both male and female veterans are overrepresented in the homeless population and as the number of veterans increases due to the current wars there is concern that the number of homeless veterans could rise commensurately Congress has created numerous programs that serve homeless veterans specifically almost all of which are funded through the Veterans Health Administration These programs provide health care and rehabilitation services for homeless veterans the Health Care for Homeless Veterans and Domiciliary Care for Homeless Veterans programs employment assistance Homeless Veterans Reintegration Program and Compensated Work Therapy program transitional housing Grant and Per Diem and Loan Guarantee programs as well as other supportive services Through an arrangement with the Department of Housing and Urban Development HUD approximately 1 000 veterans currently use dedicated Section 8 vouchers for permanent housing with supportive services provided through the VA These are referred to as HUD VASH vouchers In FY2007 it is estimated that approximately 270 million will be used to fund homeless veterans programs Several issues regarding veterans and homelessness have become prominent in part because of the current conflicts One issue is the need for permanent supportive housing for low income and homeless veterans With the exception of HUD VASH vouchers there is no source of permanent housing specifically for veterans In FY2007 the Veterans Benefits Health Care and Information Technology Act P L 109 461 authorized funding for additional HUD VASH vouchers however they have not been funded In the 110th Congress S 1084 the Homes for Heroes Act would create no fewer than 20 000 HUD VASH vouchers The bill would also provide funds through HUD for the acquisition rehabilitation and construction of permanent supportive housing for very low income veterans and their families A second emerging issue is the concern that veterans returning from Iraq and Afghanistan who are at risk of homelessness may not receive the services they need In the 110th Congress S 1384 a bill to amend Title 38 of the United States Code would institute a demonstration program in which the VA and Department of Defense would work together to identify returning members of the armed services who are at risk of homelessness Another emerging issue is the needs of female veterans whose numbers are increasing Women veterans face challenges that could contribute to their risks of homelessness They are more likely to have experienced sexual abuse than women in the general population and are more likely than male veterans to be single parents Few homeless programs for veterans have the facilities to provide separate accommodations for women and women with children

Women Veterans Luther Bradley, 2015 Trauma Informed Care for Women Veterans Experiencing Homelessness was commissioned by the U S Department of Labor DOL Women s Bureau WB as one of its many efforts to help women veterans who are experiencing homelessness find jobs and successfully reintegrate back to civilian life This guide was created to address the psychological and mental health needs of women veterans The guide is also a compilation of best practices aimed at improving effectiveness in engaging female veterans Written for service providers the guide offers observational knowledge concrete guidelines and resources for modifying practices aimed at improving reintegration outcomes Furthermore it defines the term homeless veteran discusses attempts to estimate the number of veterans who are homeless and presents the results of studies regarding the demographic characteristics of homeless veterans as well as those surveyed as part of HUD s Annual Homeless Assessment Report to Congress Finally the book summarises research regarding the overrepresentation of both male and female veterans who have been found to be present in greater percentages in the homeless population than their percentages in the general population Ending

Veterans' Homelessness United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs. Subcommittee on Housing, Transportation, and Community Development, 2010 Veteran Homelessness: A Supplemental Report to the 2009 Annual Homeless Assessment Report to Congress , A Study on the Status of Homeless Veterans in California California. Division of Veteran Services, 2002 Hearing on VA's Plan for Ending Homelessness Among Veterans United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Veterans' Affairs, 2010 The Veteran Homelessness Crisis Earl H. Lopez, 2022-10-20 In 2009 the Department of Veterans Affairs committed to ending veteran homelessness by the end of 2015 Significant steps have been taken to get our heroes the services they need with roughly 50 000 fewer veterans experiencing homelessness than a decade ago However there is still much work still to do Congress has continued working to improve the variety of Federal programs that currently exist to support homeless veterans This includes permanent housing transitional housing prevention services treatment and employment programs Women Veterans G.L.A. Harris, R. Finn Sumner, M.C. González-Prats, 2018-03-14 Women who fight in wars also have to fight for their right to do so But what are the obstacles impeding their progress in achieving equal status as both active service members and as veterans This book written by a team of female veterans and military scholars demonstrates the ways in which women service members and veterans experience a unique set of challenges when attempting to both honorably serve their country and reintegrate into civilian society following military service These challenges include but are not limited to discrimination staggering rates of suicide and barriers to obtaining treatment for military sexual trauma and other critical benefits through the U S Department of Veterans Affairs Women Veterans Lifting the Veil of Invisibility examines current service related policies and gender in the military's hierarchical power structure Here a confluence of white male privilege and entitlement the culture of domination and the effeminization of the enemy manifest themselves as a backlash against women calling into question a woman's agency and her very status as a citizen Special attention in the book is paid to the civil military divide representative bureaucracy and the function of the military and civilian justice systems Moreover the need for appropriate healthcare policies and structures is examined within a wicked problems framework The authors conclude that the responsibility for women veterans and all veterans for that matter must become a matter of compelling government interest This ground breaking book is required reading for practitioners of public policy and administration with an interest in military and veterans affairs public health NGOs and activist groups as well as scholars of gender and public service public personnel management and nonprofit management
