Georges Perec's Geographies Charles Forsdick, Andrew Leak, Richard Phillips, 2019-10-14 Georges Perec novelist filmmaker and essayist was one of the most inventive and original writers of the twentieth century A fascinating aspect of his work is its intrinsically geographical nature With major projects on space and place Perec's writing speaks to a variety of geographical urban and architectural concerns both in a substantive way including a focus on cities streets homes and apartments and in a methodological way experimenting with methods of urban exploration and observation classification enumeration and taxonomy Georges Perec's Geographies is the first book to offer a rounded picture of Perec's geographical interests Divided into two parts Part I Perec's Geographies explores the geographies within Perec's work in film literature and radio from descriptions of streets to the spaces of his texts while Part II Perecquian Geographies explores geographies in a range of material and metaphorical forms including photographic essays soundscapes theatre dance and writing created by those directly inspired by Perec Georges Perec's Geographies extends the body of Perec criticism beyond Literary and French Studies to disciplines including Geography Urban Studies Planning and Architecture to offer a complete and systematic examination of Georges Perec's geographies The diversity of readings and approaches will be of interest not only to Perec readers and fans but to students and researchers across these subjects

Postmodernizing the Holocaust Marta Tomczok, 2024-01-22 Marta Tomczok presents all Polish postmodern novels about the Holocaust starting with The First Splendor by Leopold Buczkowski and ending with The Suspected Dybbuk by Andrzej Bart She also presents their rich relationships with selected foreign language prose which intensified especially at the turn of the 20th and 21st centuries The culmination of the entire trend is a discussion around two novels Two by Marek Bie czyk and Fly Trap Factory by Andrzej Bart which reveals the aestheticizing and post memorial profile of Polish postmodernization and its advantage over the historiosophical trend This monograph is not only the first such collection of post Holocaust postmodern novels but also the first comprehensive study of postmodernism in the literature about the Holocaust which thanks to comparative analysis tries to analyze and explain the circumstances of the appearance and later disappearance of this trend from cultural landscape of the world and Poland

The New Human in Literature Mads Rosendahl Thomsen, 2013-09-26 Twentieth century literature changed understandings of what it meant to be human Mads Rosendahl Thomsen in this historical overview presents a record of literature s changing ideas of mankind questioning the degree to which literature records and creates visions of the new human Grounded in the theory of Niklas Luhmann and drawing on canonical works Thomsen uses literary changes in the mind body and society to define the new human He begins with the modernist minds of Virginia Woolf Williams Carlos Williams and Louis Ferdinand Celine s discusses the society changing concepts envisioned by Chinua Achebe Mo Yan and Orhan Pamuk He concludes with science fiction discussing Don DeLillo and Michel Houellebecq s ideas of revolutionizing man through biotechnology This is a study about imagination aesthetics and ethics that demonstrates literature s capacity to not only imagine the future but portray the conflicting desires between individual and various collectives better than any other media A study that heightens reflections on human evolution and posthumanism
