Walking with God Rachel Jamerson, 2019-05-26 I have always had an inquiring mind I want to know the who what when where how and why of everything I pay careful attention to what people don't say as well as what they say You'd be surprised at how much you can learn by simple observation I also have a habit of asking Why in my conversations with others for which I have been criticized However I don't do it to embarrass anyone I've just always wanted to create in others the desire for knowledge to get people to question the world around them and the things they do To think about their own lives and to analyze what they believe and why they believe it I want them to THINK That's why I ask questions and that's why I wrote this book God gave us an awesome gift called the brain Let's use it How does this apply to you You have a purpose Everyone born on this earth does From your first breath until your last every choice you make affects the world in some way and the decisions you make have a permanent effect on you and those in your circle of influence That's why it's so important to ask the Why questions Just as we leave our marks on others they also leave their marks on us Think about the people you have met in your life and how they affected you Teachers family members friends and leaders from all walks of life People you admired or those you despised Those you loved and those who loved you They all left you with something Whether it was negative or positive you were changed in some way This brings me back to this book and why I wrote it I am not much of a fiction writer I like to write about the things I have learned usually the hard way I am also not one who reads much fiction instead I like to read about other people's journey and what they have learned Many times you will find a reference to another author's work in my writing because what they wrote meant something to me and I want to share it with others My hope is that in reading this book you will begin to understand the importance of asking the right questions Of looking at things from a different perspective as well as understanding the cause and effect of our relationships with others I hope that you will understand the importance of using God's Word to illuminate your understanding and how to apply His wisdom in your life What follows is a collection of vignettes thoughts and life lessons that are presented to challenge and encourage you They are the result of my 75 years of life experience 45 of them spent walking with the Lord By observing my life and applying God's wisdom as shown in His Word I pray you will become wiser growing in confidence in your relationship with Jesus

Walk with God Today Brian Williams,2012-07-31 Walk With God Today grew from a weekly devotional I wrote for many years It started with sending it to several close friends and family members and grew to hundreds of people receiving it each week It started very simple As God put on my heart basic stories testimonies and every day situations that relate to His spiritual truths I wrote them down to encourage others I soon began to include a key scripture quote prayer and a few challenging questions Then I was asked by several readers when I would turn these into a book After I prayed about it God made it clear it was time I have additional key pieces for each weekly devotional designed to help you not only grow in your understanding of Christ and your life with Him but to spiritually walk with Him I hope and pray not only that you enjoy this devotional but that it causes you to Walk With God Today
