Blue Helmet Edward H. Carpenter, 2025-03 Blue Helmet My Year as a UN Peacekeeper in South Sudan tells the story of a country a conflict and the institution of peacekeeping through the eyes of a senior American military officer working on the ground in one of the most dangerous countries on the planet South Sudan is rich in natural resources and its fertile soil could make it the breadbasket of East Africa Yet it remains the poorest and most corrupt country in the region plagued by disease famine and ethnic strife Abductions sexual violence death and displacement affect tens of thousands of people each year Edward H Carpenter pulls readers into his world allowing them to experience the powerful poignant realities of being a peacekeeper in South Sudan In the process the author reveals how the United Nations really conducts its missions what it tolerates and how it often falls short of achieving the aims of its charter equal rights justice and economic advancement for all people with the use of armed forces limited to serving those common interests by keeping the peace and preventing the scourge of war It is a story that is eye opening unsettling and always compelling Global leaders may fairly claim that they have done everything they can to help South Sudan help itself they ve dispatched thousands of peacekeepers and provided billions of dollars in aid So why is the UN still struggling to fulfill its mandate to protect civilians and safeguard the delivery of humanitarian assistance What could be done better Bringing the reader to the forefront of action Blue Helmet answers these questions and raises others about how modern peacekeeping missions are organized and overseen shedding light on some of the contradictions at the heart of peacekeeping
