White Moll Frank L Packard:

The white moll Frank L. Packard,2023-06-26 It was like some shadowy pantomime The dark mouth of an alleyway thrown into murky relief by the rays of a distant street lamp the swift forward leap of a skulking figure a girl s form swaying and struggling in the man s embrace Then a pantomime no longer there came a half threatening half triumphant oath and then the girl s voice quiet strangely contained almost imperious Now give me back that purse please Instantly The man already retreating into the alleyway paused to fling back a jeering laugh Say youse ve got yer nerve ain t youse The girl turned her head so that the rays of the street lamp faint as they were fell full upon her disclosing a sweet oval face out of which the dark eyes gazed steadily at the man And suddenly the man leaned forward staring for an instant and then his hand went awkwardly to touch his cap De White Moll he mumbled deferentially He pulled the peak of his cap down over his eyes in a sort of shame faced way as though to avoid recognition and stepping nearer returned the purse Scuse me miss he said uneasily I didn t know it was youse honest to Gawd I didn t Scuse me miss Good night The White Moll Frank L.
