Manzanero, Who HQ, 2015-08-18 Abraham Lincoln Nelson Mandela Amelia Earhart Your name here This fun and interactive journal prompts kids to record their own life stories Each illustrated spread focuses on different topics from birth and the toddler years up to the present and dreams for the future Create your own family tree list your BFFs pets and favorite subjects food and hobbies When completed readers will have an up to the minute autobiography that is right at home among our other legendary Who Was titles The Story of My Life James Marion Sims, 1885 The Story of My Life František J. Vlček, 2004 The Story of My Life originally published in Czechoslovakia in 1928 is the engaging and informative autobiography of Frank Vlček a Czech immigrant who became a successful businessman in Cleveland Ohio during the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries The youngest of fourteen children Vlček was born to peasant parents in Budyn southern Bohemia in 1871 After attempting a career in blacksmithing in Bohemia at the age of seventeen he decided to follow his two older sisters to Cleveland home to America s second largest Czech community Vlček worked a variety of unsatisfactory jobs during his first years in Cleveland In 1895 he opened his own smithing operation which after a long struggle was transformed into a successful corporation that specialized in the manufacture of toolkits for automobiles acquisitions and the successes and travails of his operation Vlček was often able to travel home to Czechoslovakia and during those trips he noted the different cultural and political attitudes that had evolved between Czechs and their Czech American cousins Vlček s memoir provides a rare primary source about Czech immigrants It also offers insight into a self made man s life philosophy illustrates relations between ethnic groups in Cleveland during the 1880s and demonstrates the assimilation of a late nineteenth century immigrant in America Readers interested in immigration history as well as the history of Cleveland will enjoy this fascinating autobiography The Complete Story of the Grail Chrétien (de Troyes), 2015 The mysterious and haunting Grail makes its first appearance in literature in Chr tien de Troyes Perceval at the end of the twelfth century But Chr tien never finished his poem leaving an unresolved story and an incomplete picture of the Grail It was however far too attractive an idea to leave Not only did it inspire quite separate works his own unfinished poem was continued and finally completed by no fewer than four other writers The Complete Story of the Grail is the first ever translation of the whole of the rich and compelling body of tales contained in Chr tien s poem and its four Continuations which are finally attracting the scholarly attention they deserve Besides Chr tien s original text there are the anonymous First Continuation translated here in its fullest version the Second Continuation attributed to Wauchier de Denain and the intriguing Third and Fourth Continuations probably written simultaneously with no knowledge of each other s work by Manessier and Gerbert de Montreuil Two other poets were drawn to create preludes explaining the background to Chr tien s story and translated here also are their works The Elucidation Prologue and Bliocadran Only in this The Story of the Grail s complete form can the reader appreciate the narrative skill and invention of the medieval poets and their surprising responses to Chr tien s theme not least their crucial focus on the knight as a crusader Equally Chr tien s original poem was almost always copied in conjunction with one or more of the Continuations so this translation represents how most medieval readers would have encountered it Nigel Bryant s previous translations from Medieval French include Perlesvaus the High Book of the Grail Robert de Boron s trilogy Merlin and the Grail the Medieval Romance of Alexander The True Chronicles of Jean le Bel and Perceforest The story of the man who missed it William Henry Harrison Murray, 1898
