Who Runs The Church 4 Views On Church Government Counterpoints Church Life:

Who Runs the Church? Zondervan, 2009-05-26 Churches have split and denominations have formed over the issue of church government While many Christians can explain their church's form of rule or defend it because of its tried and true traditions few people understand their church's administrative customs from a biblical perspective Who Runs the Church explores questions such as What model for governing the church does the Bible provide and is such a model given for practical or spiritual reasons Is there room for different methods within Christianity Or is there a right way of doing church And finally how and by whom should the church be governed Four predominant approaches to church government are presented by respected proponents Episcopalianism represented by Peter Toon Presbyterianism represented by L Roy Taylor Single Elder Congregationalism represented by Paige Patterson Plural Elder Congregationalism represented by Samuel E Waldron As in other Counterpoints books each view is followed by critiques from the other contributors and its advocate then responds Three Views on Eastern Orthodoxy and Evangelicalism Bradley Nassif, James J. Stamoolis, 2004 A fascinating look at both Eastern Orthodoxy and evangelicalism to uncover similarities and differences in the two traditions The Pastor's Library Robert A. Yost, 2017-09-21 In the spirit of Cyril Barber's classic work from the 1970s The Minister's Library Robert Yost provides students and pastors with expert guidance on building a working ministerial library From Old and New Testament languages lexical aids and grammatical tools to commentaries and theologies as well as pastoral resources Yost is a trustworthy guide through the multiplicity of books that seem to just keep rolling off the presses Far more than just a guide to commentaries as are so many works today this resource is a balanced pastoral tool for pastors and students who are overwhelmed by the proliferation of literature in the fields of biblical and pastoral studies Remarriage after Divorce in Today's Church Zondervan, 2009-12-15 Despite a strong belief in the institution and sacredness of marriage studies show that Christian spouses experience divorce at least as much as the secular population But whatever the reasons for a divorce beyond the divorce itself many Christians want to know does the Bible support remarriage The fact is that no consensus exists among evangelicals on their views of remarriage leaving many Christians confused This Counterpoints volume explores the biblical and practical cases for the three main evangelical views on remarriage after divorce Remarriage is not acceptable after divorce defended by Gordon J Wenham Remarriage is acceptable only after adultery or desertion defended by William A Heth Remarriage is acceptable for a variety of reasons defended by Craig S Keener Each of the three contributors offers his point of view succinctly and with biblical support and each interacts with the others to help readers come to their own conclusions The Counterpoints series presents a comparison and critique of scholarly views on topics important to Christians that are both fair minded and respectful of the biblical text Each volume is a one stop reference that allows readers to evaluate the different positions on a specific issue and form their own educated opinion Two Views on Women in Ministry Zondervan, 2010-02-23 The role of women in positions of worship and church leadership is one of the most divisive and inconclusive biblical debates Two Views on Women in Ministry furnishes you with a clear and thorough presentation of the two primary exegetical arguments so you can better understand each one's strengths weaknesses and complexities Egalitarian equal ministry opportunity for both genders represented by Linda L Belleville and Craig S Keener Complementarian men and women fill distinctive ministry roles represented by Craig L Blomberg and Thomas R Schreiner This revised edition brings the exchange of ideas and perspectives into the traditional Counterpoints format Each author states his or her case and is then critiqued by the other contributors The fair minded interactive Counterpoints forum allows you to compare and contrast the two different positions and form your own opinion concerning the practical and often deeply personal subject of women in ministry The Counterpoints series presents a comparison and critique of scholarly views on topics important to Christians that are both fair minded and respectful of the biblical text Each volume is a one stop reference that allows readers to evaluate the different positions on a specific issue and form their own educated opinion

American Book Publishing Record, 2003 Perspectives on Church Government Chad Brand, Stan Norman, 2004-07-01 The models of church government discussed are the Plural Elder led Congregational model the Single Elder led Congregational model the Democratic Congregational model the Episcopal model and the Presbyterian model The Book Review Digest, 2005 Five Views on the Church and Politics J. Brian Benestad, Robert Benne, Bruce Fields, Thomas W. Heilke, James K.A. Smith, 2015-12-15 Learn to think deeply about the relationship between church and state in a way that goes beyond mere policy debates and current campaigns Few topics can grab headlines and stir passions quite like politics especially when the church is involved Considering the attention that many Christian parachurch groups churches and individual believers give to politics and of the varying and sometimes divergent political ideals and aims among them Five Views on the Church and Politics provides a helpful breakdown of the possible Christian approaches to political involvement General Editor Amy Black brings together five top notch political theologians in the book each representing one of the five key political traditions within Christianity Anabaptist Separationist the most limited possible Christian involvement in politics represented by Thomas Heilke Lutheran Paradoxical strong separation of church and state represented by Robert Benne Black Church Prophetic the church's mission is to be a voice for communal reform represented by Bruce Fields Reformed Transformationist emphasizes God's sovereignty over all things including churches and governments represented by James K A Smith Catholic Synthetic encouragement of political participation as a means to further the common good of all people represented by J Brian Benestad Each author addresses his tradition's theological distinctives the role of government the place of individual Christian participation in government and politics and how churches should or should not address political questions Responses by each contributor to opposing views will highlight key areas of difference and disagreement Thorough and even handed Five Views on the Church and Politics will enable readers to consider the strengths and weaknesses of the most significant Christian views on political engagement and to draw their own informed conclusions Canadian
