Milton Hershey, Chocolate King Mary Malone, 1971. A biography of the man whose faltering beginnings in candy making eventually resulted in a chocolate business known throughout the world. Milton Hershey Janet Benge, Geoff Benge, 2012.

When Milton Hershey's famous Hershey Bars debuted in 1905, few people knew of the hard work, dedication, and sacrifice preceding the triumph. Debt, lack of support, and fatigue had been constant companions for the famous chocolatier and philanthropist, a man with a fourth-grade education. Despite comparisons to his wandering father, Milton never gave up. Learning from his mistakes, he spent a lifetime creating sweet things to eat: first caramel, then chocolate. As his company soared, Milton used his wealth to care for others, founding a town for Hershey workers, a school for children in need, and a foundation dedicated to education, culture, and health care. 1857-1945. Heroes of History is a unique biography series that brings the shaping of history to life with the remarkable true stories of fascinating men and women who changed the course of history. The stories of Heroes of History are told in an engaging narrative format where related history, geography, government, and science topics come to life and make a lasting impression. This is a premier biography line for the entire family. Pages 192, paperback, Ages 10. Chocolate and Children Judy Wolfman, 2019-03-01. Milton S. Hershey never went beyond the fourth grade but learned how to make candy and opened his own business at a young age. After several failures, he finally succeeded and made taffy and caramels. When he was introduced to chocolate, he worked hard and discovered how to make milk chocolate. His first Hershey's Milk Chocolate Bar was followed by Hershey's Kisses and other chocolate goodies. He married but had no children. Before she died, his wife Kitty encouraged him to build a home and school for orphaned children He became a millionaire and traveled to many countries and built a large factory in Hershey Pennsylvania as well as a complete town amusement park zoo and pavilion He died at age eighty eight leaving a legacy of chocolate and a full life of accomplishments
