Following Jesus Christ presents unique challenges to disciples today In our current climate of relativism materialism and consumerism Christians are increasingly perplexed as to who they are and what following after Christ means today Drawing on the Protestant tradition in particular Dietrich Bonhoeffer Martin Luther and Adolf Schlatter and findings from psychology this book offers a fresh integrative interpretation of Jesus's radical call into discipleship This call is interpreted through a christological lens as Jesus Christ in his role as Prophet calls us to self denial in his role as Priest invites us to cross bearing and as King demands us to follow him Jesus's call to discipleship challenges disciples to embrace various tensions by faith and to grow and even flourish in and through them By denying themselves they find their true self by taking up their cross they find real life and by following Christ they find the great friend and befriend the world as the community of disciples This book is for Christians who seek to mature in intentional self reflection and discover practical ways of living out Christ's radical call into discipleship today
