Medical and Literary Imagination, Medieval to Modern Daniel McCann, Claire McKechnie-Mason, 2018-05-19 This book is about an emotion constantly present in human culture and history fear It is also a book about literature and medicine two areas of human endeavour that engage with fear most acutely The essays in this volume explore fear in various literary and medical manifestations in the Western World from medieval to modern times It is divided into two parts The first part Treating Fear examines fear in medical history and draws from theology medicine philosophy and psychology to offer an account of how fear shifts in Western understanding from the Middle Ages to Modern times The second part Writing Fear explores fear as a rhetorical and literary force offering an account of how it is used and evoked in distinct literary periods and texts This coherent and fascinating collection will appeal to medical historians literary critics cultural theorists medical humanities scholars and historians of the emotions Human-Earth System Dynamics Rongxing Guo, 2018-05-16 This book explores the factors and mechanisms that may have influenced the dynamic behaviors of earliest civilizations focusing on both environmental geographic factors on which traditional historic analyses are based and human behavioral factors on which anthropological analyses are usually based It also resurrects a number of common ancestral terms to help readers understand the complicated process of human and cultural evolution around the globe Specifically in almost all indigenous languages the words wa and any variants of it were originally associated with the sound of crying of and certainly were selected as the common ancestral word with the meanings of house home homeland motherland and so on by early humans living in different parts of the world This book provides many neglected but still crucial environmental and biological clues about the rise and fall of civilizations ones that have largely resulted from mankind's long lasting Win Stay Lose Shift games throughout the world The narratives and findings presented at this book are unexpected but reasonable and are what every student of anthropology or history needs to know and doesn't get in the usual text Professor Guo explores the dynamics of civilizations from the beginnings to our perplexingly complex world There are lots of thought provoking ideas here on the rise and decline of civilizations and nations Anyone wishing to understand global developments should give this book serious consideration John Komlos University of Munich Germany and Duke University USA It is interesting to see a Chinese perspective on the questions of deep history that have engaged Jared Diamond Yuval Harari and David Christian Guo argues that understanding cyclical threats has been the key to human progress which is driven by the dialectic of material privation and human ingenuity Peter Rutland Wesleyan University USA When Therapists Cry Amy Blume-Marcovici, 2017-03-16
