Why Most Things Fail Evolution Extinction And Economics:

Why Most Things Fail Paul Ormerod, 2007-12-18 With the same originality and astuteness that marked his widely praised Butterfly Economics Paul Ormerod now examines the Iron Law of Failure as it applies to business and government and explains what can be done about it Failure is all around us asserts Ormerod For every General Electric still going strong after more than one hundred years there are dozens of businesses like Central Leather which was one of the world's largest companies in 1912 but was liquidated in 1952 Ormerod debunks conventional economic theory that the world economy ticks along in perfect equilibrium according to the best laid plans of business and government and delves into the reasons for the failure of brands entire companies and public policies Inspired by recent advances in evolutionary theory and biology Ormerod illuminates the ways in which companies and policy setting sectors of government behave much like living organisms unless they evolve they die But he also makes clear how desirable social and economic outcomes may be achieved when individuals companies and governments adapt in response to the actual behavior and requirements of their customers and constituents Why Most Things Fail is a fascinating and provocative study of a truth all too seldom acknowledged

Why Most Things Fail Paul Ormerod, 2010-12-22 From the best selling author of The Death of Economics and Butterfly Economics a ground breaking look at a truth all too seldom acknowledged most commercial and public policy ventures will not succeed Paul Ormerod draws upon recent advances in biology to help us understand the surprising consequences of the Iron Law of Failure And he shows what strategies corporations businesses and governments will need to adopt to stand a chance of prospering in a world where only one thing is certain The Handbook of Evolutionary Economic Geography Ron A. Boschma, Ron L. Martin, 2010 This wide ranging handbook studies and defines the paradigm of evolutionary economic geography The distinguished contributors highlight the key conceptual theoretical and empirical advances and present a clear statement of their aims objectives and methods The Economics of Transformation Stefan

Brunnhuber, 2025-06-02 How can we transform our society What is the role of finance in this process The book will provide unconventional answers to these questions Currently finance is still driving sustainability but it should be the other way around Sustainability should drive finance Finance does not follow natural laws but resembles conventions and reflects one of the most powerful leveragers to transform our society This book provides multiple out of the box solutions for the financial and monetary sector to shift our society towards a more sustainable future Finance is the missing link in the overall transformational process we are experiencing right now globally Cases studies descriptive tables and graphs and a variety of additional material on how the monetary system works and how it should work support the idea of a new and upcoming General Theory on financing our planetary commons on money and a sustainable development for the 21st century and provides a compelling argument for the cheapest of all worlds This is the reader for scholars in the field for politicians who have to make decisions for bankers investors and regulators who work in the financial sector and for everybody who has a bank account The Path to a Modern Economics Henning Schwardt, 2017-07-26 This book illustrates how the treatment of complexity in analytical frameworks shapes economic studies It explores the ways economists make sense of our economic environment and where their differences in interpretations of economic issues and policy proposals are rooted Schwardt examines developments in economies and the role of the public sector over the last few centuries Taking a theoretical approach and addressing different analytical frameworks a basic distinction is introduced between top down approaches where assumptions about the economic environment are formulated at the outset and bottom up approaches where an economic environment emerges from the interactions of the individual agents By recognising the validity of alternate perspectives on economic issues Schwardt proposes an improved foundation for economics research and policy

Reinventing Foreign Aid William R. Easterly, 2008-05-09 Top experts in the field discuss how to improve the effectiveness of foreign aid proposing practical solutions to specific problems rather than a utopian master plan The urgency of reducing poverty in the developing world has been the subject of a public campaign by such unlikely policy experts as George Clooney Alicia Keyes Elton John Angelina Jolie and Bono And yet accompanying the call for more foreign aid is an almost universal discontent with the effectiveness of the existing aid system In Reinventing Foreign Aid development expert William Easterly has gathered top scholars in the field to discuss how to improve foreign aid These authors Easterly points out are not claiming that their ideas will to invoke a current slogan Make Poverty History Rather they take on specific problems and propose some hard headed solutions Easterly himself in an expansive and impassioned introductory chapter makes a case for the searchers who explore solutions by trial and error and learn from feedback over the planners who throw an endless supply of resources at a big goal as the most likely to reduce poverty Other writers look at scientific evaluation of aid projects including randomized trials and describe projects found to be cost effective including vaccine delivery and HIV education consider how to deal with the government of the recipient state work through it or bypass a possibly dysfunctional government examine the roles of the International Monetary Fund a de facto aid provider and the World Bank and analyze some new and innovative proposals for distributing aid Contributors Abhijit Banerjee Nancy Birdsall Craig Burnside Esther Duflo Domenico Fanizza William Easterly Ruimin He Kurt Hoffman Stephen Knack Michael Kremer Mari Kuraishi Ruth Levine Bertin Martens John McMillan Edward Miguel Jonathan Morduch Todd Moss Gunilla Pettersson Lant Pritchett Steven Radelet Aminur Rahman Ritva Reinikka Jakob Svensson Nicolas van de Walle James Vreeland Dennis Whittle Michael

Woolcock Evolutionary Economic Geography Dieter Kogler, 2017-10-02 Economic geographers increasingly consider the significance of history in shaping the contemporary socio economic landscape and increasingly believe that experiences and competencies acquired over time by individuals and entities in particular localities to a large degree determine present configurations as well as future regional trajectories Attempts to trace understand and investigate the pathways from past to present have given rise to the thriving and exciting sub field of Evolutionary Economic Geography EEG EEG highlights the important factors that initiate inhibit or consolidate the contextual settings and relationships in which regions and their respective agents which comprise and shape economic activity and social reproduction change over time It has at its core the production and destruction of novelty in space and the links between innovation and regional economic fortunes The creation of knowledge its movement and recombination within different regional ensembles of economic agents and institutions plays a critical role in the evolution of the space economy EEG provides a framework to disentangle the complexity of technological change and regional economic development based on a variety of theoretical and methodological approaches In only a short time EEG has established itself as a promising and rapidly evolving research framework with its focus on the driving forces of regional development across various scales and its attempt to translate findings into public policy This book advances the theoretical foundations of EEG and demonstrates how EEG utilises and operationalises conceptual frameworks both established and new Contributions also point to future research avenues and extensions of EEG attempting to build stronger ties between theory empirical evidence and relevance to policy This book was originally published as a special issue of Regional Studies

Honorable Business James R. Otteson, 2019-01-30 Infamous cases like Enron and Bernie Madoff question whether business is an inherently dubious activity Honorable Business argues that there is in fact such a thing as honorable business which seeks to generate value not only for itself but for all parties to its transactions and to society generally
