and the government seems like a good idea at the time but Jim finds obstructions in the path of justice Jim falls in love with Nola's friend Jenny whose brother Paul is threatened with conscription into the Army Her mother Shirley founds an organisation called Save Our Sons campaigning against conscription and the Vietnam War Jim commences officer training at about the time a Royal Commission into the disaster releases its findings which are seen as a whitewash by Jim and his mates What is justice Jim wants to know He joins several of his fellow survivors in a class action against the Navy and the Government but they encounter opposition from the authorities On graduating from the naval college Jim is posted to the Melbourne deployed to Vietnam He still experiences nightmares from his Voyager experience and his time in Vietnam is equally traumatic He resigns from the Navy suffering from what we now call PTSD although he doesn't know it Only Jenny's love and forgiveness can rescue him from deep depression but when he enrolls at Sydney University he is thrust into the midst of student demonstrations Paul lost his fight to stay out of the Army and was sent to Vietnam but is discharged medically unfit due to a drug addiction Back in Sydney he absconds from his rehab program and disappears In search of him Jenny volunteers as a counsellor at the Wayside Chapel providing support to addicts in King's Cross Sydney has been invaded by American servicemen on R R from Vietnam Jenny's father Richard separated from Shirley is a wealthy property developer At Jenny's suggestion he employs Jim as skipper of his corporate cruiser Alcyone offering harbour cruises for American soldiers and others One of her passengers also an addict and a client of the Wayside Chapel claims to have seen Jenny's brother He exposes a CIA plot to smuggle heroin from Laos to the USA via Sydney The CIA also plans to establish a bank in Sydney to launder their drug money and trade weapons throughout Asia and other parts of the world A second whitewash Royal Commission into the sinking of Voyager and her alcoholic captain enrages Jim and his former shipmates When Paul's corpse is found in a state of decay in an old house slated for demolition and development by Richard it's the last straw for Jim The ghastly discovery is enough to bring the family back together but Jim is even more determined to avenge his mate and it's going to turn out badly for someone Review by Boris Seaweed on June 19 2016 Thought provoking and captivating book written in smooth English and interspersed with Australian everyday spoken language idioms and slang Describing different sides of Australian life the Navy business university life Sydney city life fashions etc the author also delves into the recent history Vietnam war and antiwar movement politics etc He also dares to weave into the plot and connect with the main character his version of mysterious disappearance of Australian Prime Minister Harold Holt on December 17 1967 And it is also a charming love and family story Personally I have read the book in one breath Whisky Tango Foxtrot Yeoyo's Paperbacks, 2019-09-07 Whisky Tango Foxtrot Journal Notebook Workbook 6x9 100 Pages Graph Paper 5x5 Glossy Softback Cover Amazing Whisky Tango Foxtrot illustrative work with Distressed Typography Act now get your new favorite Whiskey And Dancing artwork or gift it to family friends 100 duo sided bright white pages 6x9 dimensions portable size bag school home work desc High quality glossy softbound cover designed with love Makes an ideal present for any gift giving occasion
