Media Depictions of Brides, Wives, and Mothers Alena Amato Ruggerio, 2012-09-27 Media Depictions of Brides Wives and Mothers edited by Alena Amato Ruggerio explores how television film the internet and other media variously perpetuate gender stereotypes The contributors to this volume bring a variety of feminist rhetorical and media criticism approaches from across the communication discipline to their analyses of how television film news coverage and the Internet shape our expectations of the performance of women's identities This collection includes studies of Bridezillas Jon Kate Plus 8 Sex and the City Sarah Palin Nancy Pelosi The Devil Wears Prada Practical Magic momtini blogs and Mad Men fan websites Readers will learn to apply the insights from each chapter to their own sets of myths stereotypes and assumptions about gendered roles and to recognize the possibilities for both liberation and domination when women's practices of marrying mating and mothering are represented and misrepresented in the media This collection is an essential contribution to media studies and criticism of gender stereotypes in contemporary culture Read the author's recent interview with Literary Ashland You can also visit the author's website here

Feminism, Self-Presentation, and Pinterest Emily S. Johnson, 2020-06-26 Feminism Self Presentation and Pinterest The Labor of Wedding Planning argues that Pinterest which has been largely criticized for perpetuating vapid stereotypical gender roles is actually a dynamic digital curation tool that facilitates meaning making around the important cultural event of the Western wedding Emily S Johnson through a thorough examination of how aspiring brides use the platform to plan their weddings found that Pinterest is a unique platform that offers brides the opportunity to construct their own wedding identity by engaging in creativity and exercising voice and agency during planning Even if the content they are consuming does support tenets of patriarchy or gender roles brides are able to make their own choices rather than having their goals determined for them through societal or familial norms and expectations The platform integrates both the online and offline labors of wedding planning as brides create meaning through the curation process and connect with the self as they execute their planning Overall Johnson argues that far from the stereotypes of fantasizing about dream weddings and luxurious lifestyles that may be unrealistic Pinterest gives brides increased ability to make their own specialized vision come to life Scholars of women's studies gender studies communication media studies cultural studies and rhetoric will find this book particularly useful
