Who Killed Betsy Uncovering Penn State University's Most Notorious Unsolved Crime:

Who Killed Betsy? Derek Sherwood, 2011-07 In 1969 a 22 year old graduate student from Holland Michigan named Betsy Aardsma was murdered inside Penn State University's Pattee Library The murder was never solved The suspects included Ted Bundy the Zodiac Killer and others It appears likely though that the killer was someone even stranger

Justice Perverted Derek J. Sherwood, 2018-06-05 In 1975 Dr Richard Charles Haefner had it all a Ph D from Penn State University a prestigious job offer with UCLA and a thriving family business Then it all came crashing down Two boys who worked for Haefner accused him of sexual molestation but allegations of police brutality prosecutorial misconduct bribery and corruption soon overshadowed what seemed like an open and shut case ultimately resulting in the Pennsylvania Supreme Court's amending state law Drawing on interviews and recently discovered documents the author revisits the case and explores a number of open questions including whether Haefner was set up by police as he claimed Summary of David Dekok's Murder in the Stacks Everest Media, 2022-09-12T22:59:00Z Please note This is a companion version not the original book Sample Book Insights 1 Penn State University the largest and most prestigious public university in Pennsylvania was also the most inaccessible It was a small town with a big university 2 Penn State University the largest public university in Pennsylvania was also the most inaccessible It was a small town with a big university 3 The Penn State University library was the most inaccessible It was a small town with a big university 4 Penn State University the largest and most prestigious public university in Pennsylvania was also the most inaccessible It was a small town with a big university Countdown to Murder: Pam Hupp Rebecca F. Pittman, 2021-12-13 The brutal murder of Betsy Faria on December 27 2011 set off a maelstrom of events that resulted in an innocent man's imprisonment and another man's death It would take a decade to unravel all the misdirection in the Faria murder case the misconduct of the prosecution team and the insidious mind of a murderer that St Charles County Prosecutor Tim Lohmar called The Worst of the Worst Betsy Faria was stabbed over 55 times The murder scene was staged in an effort to frame the victim's husband Russell Faria Through an investigative trial filled with perjury tainted evidence and misdirection Russell was found guilty and spent 3 1 2 years in prison before his tenacious lawyer won him a second chance It was during that second trial that the shadows fell away and the real murderer was revealed But before they could bring her to justice several people would be stalked as potential victims and one man would eventually lose his life in her effort to deflect suspicion from herself Along the way her mother mysteriously plunged from her third floor balcony and died Pam Hupp benefited from the insurance in both her mother's and Betsy Faria's deaths Ripped from the headlines this incredible case has spawned multiple podcasts including Dateline NBC's most popular podcast to date The Thing About Pam It will air February 22 2022 as an NBC mini series starring Renee Zellweger as Pam Hupp The story will also appear as a People Magazine Investigates documentary At this printing a Preliminary Hearing and Death Penalty Murder Trial are in the works against Ms Hupp At their conclusion there will be a follow up book in the

Countdown to Murder Pam Hupp series by Rebecca F Pittman Rumors of other victims are also being looked into at this time The book is packed with crime scene photos supplied to Ms Pittman by the prosecuting attorneys and their law enforcement agencies Exclusive interviews with family police media and prosecutors are included Ms Pittman was also given access to the detectives and PA s involved in the two murder cases and enjoyed sharing details of the evidence provided Female serial killers are rare representing only five to seven percent of the population Accused of three murders and with rumors of possible other victims Pam Hupp falls within that five to seven percent She filled the dark hours with plots so nefarious and unbelievable that it boggles the mind It is chilling to think of what other plans she was composing when she was finally apprehended There is still much to unveil It is a story that will continue to rank as one of the most diabolical in True Crime history The ripple effects of her actions have so far torn apart the lives of three victims and their families Pam Hupp is in prison for the murder of Louis Gumpenberger and is currently going to trial for the murder of Betsy Faria where Prosecuting Mike Wood will be seeking the Death Penalty A Preliminary Hearing is set for Spring of 2022 with the trial probably falling in early 2023
