Who Killed The Canadian Military:

Who Killed the Canadian Military? J. L. Granatstein, 2004 Jack Granatstein's Who Killed the Canadian Military is more than a history of the decline and rustout of a military that as late as 1966 boasted 3 826 aircraft including cutting edge Sea King helicopters as opposed to today's 328 aircraft including those same Sea Kings and CF 18 fighters whose avionics are a generation out of date the same can be said of the army and navy Granatstein's book is a convincing analysis of Canada's embrace of a delusional foreign policy that equates knee jerk anti Americanism with sovereignty and forgets that in a Hobbesian world of international relations power still comes primarily from the barrel of a gun and not from Steven Lewis's speeches about Canadian goodwill tolerance or humanitarianism from amazon.com product desc

Who Killed Canadian History? J. L. Granatstein, 1998 Have we lost our past and in turn ourselves Who is slamming shut our history books and why In an indictment that points damning fingers at our education system the media and our government's preoccupation with multiculturalism to the exclusion of English Canadian culture historian J L Granatstein offers astonishing evidence of our lack of historical knowledge He shows not only how dumbing down in our education system is contributing to the death of Canadian history but how a multi disciplinary social studies approach puts more nails in the coffin He explains how some teachers think studying the Second World War glorifies violence and may worsen French English conflicts if conscription is mentioned And he tells how the pride Canadians should feel over their past has been brushed aside by efforts to create a history that suits the misguided ideas of successive ministers of Canadian heritage and multiculturalism Finally he shows that there is hope and there are steps we must take if we are to renew our past and ensure our future With his intelligent and outspoken blow the dust off the history books approach to his subject J L Granatstein has produced a brilliantly argued book that addresses a subject too important to ignore Published to coincide with the anniversary of the battle of Vimy Ridge April 9 1917 and appearing at a time when our education system is coming under ever sharper attack Who Killed Canadian History is a timely and provocative release A recent test on Canada given to 100 first year students at an Ontario university revealed the following statistics 61% did not know that Sir John A Macdonald was our first English speaking prime minister 55% did not know that Canada was founded in 1867 95% did not know that 1837 was the date of the Rebellions of Upper and Lower Canada 92% did not know the year of the first Quebec referendum

Canada's National Security in the Post-9/11

World David McDonough, 2012-03-07 After the terrorist attacks of 9 11 which targeted the heart of financial and military power in the United States Canada once again proved its credentials as a key American ally With the imminent end of its combat role in Afghanistan however it is time to take stock of how Canada has adapted to the exigencies of the post 9 11 world and to consider the future directions for its foreign defence and security policies This timely exploration and re assessment of Canada's approach to strategic affairs offers a diverse set of nuanced sometimes controversial and always insightful perspectives on the most pressing security challenges that Canada currently faces Bringing together noted experts on these issues including a Canadian Senator a past Minister of National Defence former high level military officers and top scholars this collection provides powerful ideas and guidance for the difficult task of formulating an overarching national security strategy The Maccabees in the World War Knights of Maccabees,1920 Canadian Official Record ,1918
