Whose Freud The Place Of Psychoanalysis In Contemporary Culture:

Whose Freud? Peter Brooks, Alex Woloch, 2000 One hundred years after the publication of The Interpretation of Dreams Freud remains the most frequently cited author of our culture and one of the most controversial To some he is the presiding genius of modernity to others the author of its symptomatic illnesses The current position of psychoanalysis is very much at issue Is it still valid as a theory of the mind Have its therapeutic applications been rendered obsolete by drugs Why does it still figure in debates about sexual identity despite its rejection by many feminists How does it contribute to cultural analysis This book offers a new assessment of the status of psychoanalysis as a discipline and a discourse in contemporary culture It brings together an exceptional group of theorists and practitioners such as partisans and critics of Freud as Frederic Crews Judith Butler Leo Bersani Juliet Mitchell Robert Jay Lifton Richard Wollheim Jonathan Lear and others These contributors who are active in literature philosophy film history cultural studies neuroscience psychotherapy and other disciplines debate how psychoanalysis has enriched and been enriched by these fields Reading the Early Modern English Diary Miriam Nandi, 2021-02-27 Reading the Early Modern Diary traces the historical genealogy formal characteristics and shifting cultural uses of the early modern English diary It explores the possibilities and limitations the genre held for the self expression of a writer at a time which considerably predated the Romantic cult of the individual self The book analyzes the connections between genre and self articulation How could the diary come to be associated with emotional self expression given the tedium and repetitiveness of its early seventeenth century ancestors How did what were once mere lists of daily events evolve into narrative representations of inner emotions What did it mean to write on a daily basis when the proper use of time was a heavily contested issue Reading the Early Modern Diary addresses these questions and develops new theoretical frameworks for discussing interiority and affect in early modern autobiographical texts Early Psychoanalytic Religious Writings H. Newton Malony, Edward P. Shafranske, 2021-03-22 Early Psychoanalytic Religious Writings presents in one edited volume many of the foundational writings in the psychoanalytic study of religion These translated works by Abraham Fromm Pfister and others complement Freud's seminal contributions and provide a unique window into the origins of psychoanalytic thinking The volume includes the Freud Pfister correspondence with a brief introduction which reveals the rich back story of friendship mutual respect and intellectual debate These essays are anchored in Freud's early theory building and prefigure and are linked to later developments in psychoanalytic thought The issues raised in these essays are of relevance still today how is religion's thinking shaped by unconscious processes reflecting primary relationships and drives

New Psychoanalytic Readings of Shakespeare James Newlin, James W. Stone, 2023-07-14 It has been over two decades since the publication of the last major edited collection focused on psychoanalysis and early modern culture In Shakespeare studies the New Historicism and cognitive psychology have hindered a dynamic conversation engaging depth oriented models of the mind from taking place The essays in New Psychoanalytic Readings of Shakespeare Cool Reason and

Seething Brains seek to redress this situation by engaging a broad spectrum of psychoanalytic theory and criticism from Freud to the present to read individual plays closely These essays show how psychoanalytic theory helps us to rethink the plays history of performance their treatment of gender sexuality and race their view of history and trauma and the ways in which they anticipate contemporary psychodynamic treatment Far from simply calling for a conventional return to Freud the essays collected here initiate an exciting conversation between Shakespeare studies and psychoanalysis in the hopes of radically transforming both disciplines It is time to listen once again to seething brains Neither Victim nor Survivor Marilyn Nissim-Sabat, 2009-07-16 In Neither Victim nor Survivor Thinking toward a New Humanity Marilyn Nissim Sabat offers a comprehensive critique of the interrelated concepts of victim and survivor as they have been ideologically distorted in Western thought Framed by the phenomenological perspective of Edmund Husserl Nissim Sabat carries out her argument through an intense engagement with current scholarly work on Toni Morrison's Beloved Sophocles' Antigone akrasia psychoanalysis critical race theory feminist philosophy of science and Marxism Nissim Sabat ultimately proposes that a new consciousness enabled by the phenomenological attitude of the way in which ideological distortion of the concepts of victim and survivor helps to perpetuate victimization will empower us to find ways to end victimization and its anti human consequences The book's interdisciplinary approach will make it appealing to a broad range of students and scholars alike

Scenes of Projection Jill H. Casid, 2015-01-01 Theorizing vision and power at the intersections of the histories of psychoanalysis media scientific method and colonization Scenes of Projection poaches the prized instruments at the heart of the so called scientific revolution the projecting telescope camera obscura magic lantern solar microscope and prism From the beginnings of what is retrospectively enshrined as the origins of the Enlightenment and in the wake of colonization the scene of projection has functioned as a contraption for creating a fantasy subject of discarnate vision for the exercise of reason Jill H Casid demonstrates across a range of sites that the scene of projection is neither a static diagram of power nor a fixed architecture but rather a pedagogical setup that operates as an influencing machine of persistent training Thinking with queer and feminist art projects that take up old devices for casting an image to reorient this apparatus of power that produces its subject Scenes of Projection offers a set of theses on the possibilities for felt embodiment out of the damaged and difficult pasts that haunt our present

Understanding Sublimation in Freudian Theory and Modernist Writing Luke Thurston, 2024-07-03 What is at stake in Freud's enduring preoccupation with a process supposedly diverting sexuality into cultural activity In this study a leading scholar of psychoanalysis and literature re opens the old question of sublimation in a critical reading that explores one of the last remaining puzzles of Freudian thought Using the rigorous framework provided by Jean Laplanche Luke Thurston resituates sublimation as an unfinished Freudian concept bound up with a much wider history of philosophical and literary reflection Exploring the misunderstanding and reinvention of sublimation both in accounts of cultural history and in Lacan's celebrated reading of Antigone Thurston challenges some of the prevalent assumptions still seen in contemporary theory Thurston links his critical investigation of psychoanalysis to modernist literature discovering both parallels and alternatives to Freud's idea of sublimation in little known works by May Sinclair and David Jones The study concludes by arguing that these modernist artists both of whom were significantly affected by trauma during the First World War produced work radically at odds with the established canons of representation and that this anti hermeneutic art can be linked to a Copernican sublimation a process not controlled by the ego but vitalizing it and decentring its habitual structure Minnesota Law Review ,2002 Freud's Theory of Culture Abraham Drassinower,2003 Abraham Drassinower takes a fresh look at Freud countering his prevalent image as a man pessimistically renouncing the possibility of social political and cultural change Yearbook of Comparative and General Literature ,2001 Michigan Law Review ,2002-02 Psychoanalysis and History ,2007 Feminism and Psychoanalysis ,2001 Each bibliography includes a comprehensive list of the theorist's works and critical studies of these works in English Each bibliography contains approximately 600 to 900 entries Books journal articles essays within edited books in the manner of Essay and General Literature and dissertations are included References are provided from a wide variety of disciplines and bibliographic sources The primary purpose of each bibliography is to provide access to the widely reprinted primary works in English and the critical literature in a great variety of books and journals The topical bibliographies include the authoritative works on the subject and are arranged in useful categories The lively part of the modern post modern debate is generally taking place in alternative and left journals journals always included in the literature search in the compiling of the bibliographies The Road to Unity in Psychoanalytic Theory Leo Rangell,2007 With erudition equilibrium and deep knowledge Rangell points out the main problem of the day the struggle between pluralism and unified psychoanalytic theory This text examines both positions in an effort to separate rational thinking from passion and politics The road to unity is for Rangell to recognize the development of different points of view so as to expand the theory rather than to replace a theory by another Rangell clearly distinguishes integration from split and proposes an objective approach The Figure of Woman and the Distractions of Desire Clare Counihan,2006 American Journal of Psychotherapy ,1947 Yale Journal of Law & the Humanities ,2001 The Library Journal ,2000 Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000 0035 called Junior libraries 1954 May 1961 Also issued separately Book Review Digest ,1927 Library Journal Melvil Dewey,Richard Rogers Bowker,L.
