Why Do We Kill The Pathology Of Murder In Baltimore:

Why Do We Kill? Kelvin Sewell, Stephen Janis, 2011 Former Baltimore City homicide detective Kelvin Sewell has seen it all Gang members burned alive a baby unceremoniously stuffed into the ground by its own mother a sex offender who killed a child in a delusional jealous rage The constant grind of bearing witness to violent death has given Sewell an unprecedented perspective into the minds of killers He sat in the Baltimore Police Department's interview room with 14 year old Devon Richardson as the teen tried to explain why he shot a woman he didn't know in the back of the head He watched the father of 17 year old Nicole Edmonds cry over the corpse of his dead daughter murdered for a cellphone But now for the first time Sewell has decided to share the insights and the pain the dehumanizing effects of crime and waves of psychic despair and social dysfunction in his groundbreaking book Why Do We Kill I think people deserve to know the truth said Sewell a 20 year veteran of Baltimore City's police department They need to get a sense of why people kill in Baltimore I want people to see what we see as detectives he explained I think there are misconceptions about crime in Baltimore and I hope this book will clear them up The book recounts some of the most notorious homicide cases in Baltimore in the past decade all told from the perspective of the cop who worked them Joining forces with Sewell is award winning investigative reporter Stephen Janis who covered City Hall for the now defunct Baltimore Examiner and is founder of the award winning news website Investigative Voice What makes this book different is the collaborative voice said Janis Kelvin would discuss his thoughts on the cases and I then tried to tell the story by adding the context that comes naturally with being a reporter Janis's colleague at Investigative Voice reporter and political scientist Alan Z Forman served as editor for the project Janis is no stranger to the Baltimore crime scene winning a string of prestigious awards for his crime reporting including two consecutive Maryland Delaware DC Press Association awards in Category A for his series on the murders of sex workers and his investigation into the high number of unsolved killings in Baltimore

Wrongful Conviction and Criminal Justice Reform Marvin Zalman, Julia Carrano, 2013-10-30 Wrongful Conviction and Criminal Justice Reform is an important addition to the literature and teaching on innocence reform This book delves into wrongful convictions studies but expands upon them by offering potential reforms that would alleviate the problem of wrongful convictions in the criminal justice system Written to be accessible to students Wrongful Conviction and Criminal Justice Reform is a main text for wrongful convictions courses or a secondary text for more general courses in criminal justice political science and law school innocence clinics

You Can't Stop Murder Stephen Janis, Stephen Tabeling, Taya M. Graham, Alan Z. Forman, 2013-08-21 A murderous vigilante group named Black October guns down drug dealers and a prominent politician A psychopath stalks the corridors of city hall en route to a near deadly rendezvous with the mayor A crazed sniper picks off half a dozen city police officers from the third window of an east Baltimore row home Violent crimes in one of the country's most violent cities and at the center of it all a single cop Former Baltimore city homicide Lieutenant Stephen Tabeling What he learned policing during the chaotic decades of 1960s and 70s are truisms about human nature our propensity for violence and what we can and cannot do to stop it Wisdom he is now sharing as a literary epitaph to over six decades in law enforcement by recounting chilling tales of real cases that rocked the city of Baltimore to its core and changed one man's life forever Tabeing is joined by award winning investigative reporter Stephen Janis who has covered crime and corruption in Baltimore city for both print and television He is also the author of the critically acclaimed book You Can't Stop Murder Stephen Tabeing,2020-09-30

The Poet Michael Connelly,2003-04-29 FROM THE 1 BESTSELLING AUTHOR OF THE HARRY BOSCH AND LINCOLN LAWYER SERIES An electrifying standalone thriller that breaks all the rules With an introduction by Stephen King Death is reporter Jack McEvoy's beat his calling his obsession But this time death brings McEvoy the story he never wanted to write and the mystery he desperately needs to solve A serial killer of unprecedented savagery and cunning is at large His targets homicide cops each haunted by a murder case he couldn't crack The killer's calling card a quotation from the works of Edgar Allan Poe His latest victim is McEvoy's own brother And his last may be McEvoy himself Violent Order David Correia,Tyler Wall,2021-08-17 This book's radical theory of police argues that the police demand for order is a class order and a racialized and patriarchal order by arguing that the police project in order to fabricate and defend capitalist order must patrol an imaginary line between society and nature it must transform nature into inert matter made available for accumulation Police don't just patrol the ghetto or the Indian reservation the thin blue line doesn't just refer to a social order rather police announce a general claim to domination of labor and of nature Police and police violence are modes of environment making This edited volume argues that any effort to understand racialized police violence is incomplete without a focus on the role of police in constituting and reinforcing patterns of environmental racism Offender Profiling George B. Palermo,Richard N. Kocsis,2005 In this book two eminent scholars both active in clinical and research work grapple with the timely topic of criminal profiling Their purpose in writing their very comprehensive and objective book is to attempt to separate myth from reality the wheat from the chaff The book stands on firm psychological psychiatric foundations as the basis for offender typologies Healthside ,1844 Becoming Abolitionists Derecka Purnell,2021-10-05 A NONAME BOOK CLUB PICK Named a Kirkus Reviews Best Book of 2021 Becoming Abolitionists is ultimately about the importance of asking questions and our ability to create answers And in the end Purnell makes it clear that abolition is a labor of love one that we can accomplish together if only we decide to Nia Evans Boston Review For more than a century activists in the United States have tried to reform the police From community policing initiatives to increasing diversity none of it has stopped the police from killing about three people a day Millions of people continue to protest police violence because these solutions do not match the problem the police cannot be reformed In Becoming Abolitionists Purnell draws from her experiences as a lawyer writer and organizer initially skeptical about police abolition She saw too much sexual violence and buried too many friends to consider getting rid of police in her hometown of St Louis let alone the nation But the police were a placebo Calling them felt like something and something feels like everything when the other option seems like nothing Purnell details how multi racial social movements rooted in rebellion risk taking and revolutionary love pushed her and a generation of activists toward abolition The book travels across geography and time and offers lessons that activists have learned from Ferguson to South Africa from Reconstruction to contemporary protests against police shootings Here Purnell argues that police can not be reformed and invites readers to envision new systems that work to address the root causes of violence Becoming Abolitionists shows that abolition is not solely about getting rid of police but a commitment to create and support different answers to the problem of harm in society and most excitingly an opportunity to reduce and eliminate harm in the first place
