Why Good Arguments Often Fail Making A More Persuasive Case For Christ:

Why Good Arguments Often Fail James W. Sire, 2006-02-22 Why is it that solid rational arguments for the Christian faith often fail James Sire public defender of the Christian faith has asked himself that question Sometimes the arguments themselves just aren't that good How can we make them better Sire offers insights on making a persuasive case for Christ

Apologetics Beyond Reason James W. Sire, 2014-07-14 In this accessible and engaging work veteran apologist Jim Sire gives us eyes to see the signs all around us that point to the specific truth of God in Christ Sire focuses on the power of good literature even from those who deny the existence of God to enable us to perceive and testify to God's reality in ways that rational argument alone cannot

The Debaters of This Age Steven H Propp, 2019-02-05 It is June 2018 as an unusual group of scholars professors lecturers and students gather in a California hotel They are all attendees of an Apologetics conference intended to join qualified representatives of Christian Deist and Atheist thought for a two week no holds barred debate and discussion of their respective positions that will ultimately be included in a book published after the conference Evangelical Christianity is represented by advocates of Evidentialist and Presuppositionalist approaches to Apologetics Catholicism liberal Christianity and Deism are also well supported The Atheist perspective is advocated by a polemical author and a college professor notorious for attacking the views of his Christian students As the participants argue over controversial issues such as cosmology evolution The Bible historical evidence for Jesus the resurrection biblical prophecies and the problem of evil intellectual fireworks result But what will result when such a volatile and eclectic group is placed face to face for more than two weeks The Debaters of this Age is the tale of what happens inside a California hotel in 2018 when a group of intellectuals gather to vigorously discuss the religious issues of our time Faith Reads David

Rainey, 2008-07-30 At last a resource for librarians who wish to build or develop their nonfiction collection and use it to better serve the needs of adult Christian readers Covering the three major branches of Christianity Roman Catholic Protestant and Orthodox the author organizes more than 600 titles into subject categories ranging from biography the arts and education to theology devotion and spiritual warfare Award winning classics are noted Introductory narrative frames the literature and helps librarians better understand Christian literature and learn how to establish selection criteria for building a Christian nonfiction collection

Welcome to College 2nd ed Jonathan Morrow, 2017-03-28 The single best volume I have ever read for preparing students for how to follow Jesus and flourish as his disciple in college J P Moreland Is there a more frightening question for a graduating high school senior than What will you do with your life In college whether they realize it or not students will answer that question every day with each decision All of the new friends and new experiences of higher education will shape their future It's critical that students know how to handle college before they're in the thick of it Jonathan Morrow tackles the tough questions that arise during these formative years including How do you grow spiritually How do you manage your time to both study well and have fun Is all truth relative Are there good reasons to be a Christian
