The Movement Makes Us Human Joanna Shenk, 2018-01-11

How is it that the person who created and defined the field of Black Studies and drafted Dr Martin Luther King Jr s prophetic Beyond Vietnam speech needs an introduction even in movement circles today In this provocative and poignant interview Dr Vincent Harding reflects on the communities that shaped his early life compelled him to join movements for justice and sustained his ongoing transformation He challenges those committed to justice today to consider the enduring power of nonviolent social change and to root out white supremacy in all of its forms With his relentless commitment to education and relationship building across lines of difference Harding never doubted the capacity of people to create the world we need Liberal Learning and the Great Christian Traditions Gregory W. Jenkins, Jonathan Yonan, 2015-07-07 As an aspect of civic humanism the liberal arts comprehended the skills necessary to realize the common good of free citizens within a free society the mental habits basic to citizenship as preached and taught in the classical medieval and Renaissance worlds The liberal arts formed people with the virtues proper to civic life The Church has never been quiet about these issues In every age Christians have addressed themselves to what the human animal is that such a being can be trained in civic virtue and how this can best be done why Christians should care and what Faith has to say on such matters as profane learning This book's essays explore how the various Christian Traditions have taken up the question of liberal learning by setting it within the context of their own peculiar idioms and histories

Faith Forward David M. Csinos, Melvin Bray, 2013 Knowing how to nurture faith in young people is a challenge particularly when we want to encourage a faith that is generous innovative and contextual Faith Forward gathers 21 presentations from the 2012 Children Youth and a New Kind of Christianity conference held in Washington D C and makes them available for those in ministry with children and youth pastors parents professors anyone called to help young people on their journey of faith Authors and attendees alike came from several countries and many denominational in ections Likewise the chapters express various contemporary takes on Christian faith and discipleship This book is a goldmine of information and inspiration for those seeking to engage children and youth in respectful conversation exploration and learning in today's complex world If you are seeking grassroots forward thinking ecumenical innovative and collaborative ways to do children and youth ministry then this book provides the material to move you in that direction

The Subversive Evangelical Peter J. Schuurman, 2019-06-30 Evangelicals have been scandalized by their association with Donald Trump their megachurches summarily dismissed as religious Walmarts In The Subversive Evangelical Peter Schuurman shows how a growing group of reflexive evangelicals use irony to critique their own tradition and distinguish themselves from the stereotype of right wing evangelicalism Entering the Meeting House an Ontario based Anabaptist megachurch as a participant observer Schuurman discovers that the marketing is clever and the venue a rented movie theatre is attractive to the more than five thousand weekly attendees But the heart of the church is its charismatic leader Bruxy Cavey whose anti religious teaching and ironic tattoos offer a fresh image for evangelicals This charisma Schuurman argues is not just the power of one individual it is a dramatic production in which Cavey his staff and attendees cooperate cultivating an identity as an irreligious megachurch and providing followers with a more culturally acceptable way to practise their faith in a secular age Going behind the scenes to small group meetings church dance parties and the homes of attendees to investigate what motivates these reflexive evangelicals Schuurman reveals a playful and provocative
