A New Perspective on the Use of Paul in the Gospel of Mark Cameron Evan Ferguson,2021-03-01 This volume presents a detailed case for the plausible literary dependence of the Gospel of Mark on select letters of the apostle Paul The book argues that Mark and Paul share a gospel narrative that tells the story of the life death resurrection and second coming of Jesus Christ in accordance with the scriptures and it suggests that Mark presumed Paul and his mission to be constitutive episodes of that story It contends that Mark self consciously sought to anticipate the person teachings and mission of Paul by constructing narrative precursors concordant with the eventual teachings of the itinerant apostle a process Ferguson labels Mark s etiological hermeneutic The book focuses in particular on the various re presentations of Christ s death that Paul believed occurred within his communities Christ s death performed in ritual prefigured in scripture and embodied within Paul s person and it argues that these are all seeded within and anticipated by Mark s narrative Through careful argument and detailed analysis A New Perspective on the Use of Paul in the Gospel of Mark makes a substantial contribution to the ongoing debate about the dependence of Mark on Paul It is key reading for any scholar engaged in that debate and the insights it provides will be of interest to anyone studying the Synoptic Gospels or the epistles of Paul more generally
