Young Adult Offenders Lost In Transition Cambridge Criminal Justice Series:

Young Adult Offenders Friedrich Lösel, A. E. Bottoms, David P. Farrington, 2012 This book brings together leading authorities in the field to analyse theoretical empirical and policy issues relating to this neglected group of people exploring different approaches to both crime prevention and offender treatment

The Routledge International Handbook of Life-Course Criminology Arjan Blokland, Victor van der Geest, 2017-03-16 Since its introduction in the latter half of the 1980s the meticulous study of distinct criminal career dimensions like onset frequency and crime mix has yielded a wealth of information on the way crime develops over the life span Policymakers in turn have used this information in their efforts to tailor criminal justice interventions to be both effective and efficient Life course criminology studies the ways in which the criminal career is embedded in the totality of the individual life course and seeks to clarify the causal mechanisms governing this process The Routledge International Handbook of Life Course Criminology provides an authoritative collection of international theoretical and empirical research into the way that criminal behavior develops over the life span which causal mechanisms are involved in shaping this development and to what degree criminal justice interventions are successful in redirecting offenders criminal trajectories Drawing upon qualitative and quantitative research this handbook covers theory describes and compares criminal career patterns across different countries tests current explanations of criminal development and using cutting edge methods assesses the intended and unintended effects of formal interventions This book is the first of its kind to offer a comprehensive overview of state of the art developments in criminal career and life course research providing unique perspectives and exclusive local knowledge from over 50 international scholars This book is an ideal companion for teachers and researchers engaged in the field of developmental and life course criminology
