After a moment's panic she was partly reassured when told Professor Simon van der Driesma was willing to keep her on but Simon turned out to be a very different proposition. He was younger, more energetic and worked Julie much harder, all of which she could have accepted if he would only call her Julie and not Miss Beckworth in that cool voice. Both of them had the wrong impression of the other. What would it take for the truth to be revealed? The American Shorthorn Herd Book, 1911

Human Spirits: A Cultural Account of Trance in Mayotte Michael Lambek, 1981-11-30 Based on intensive ethnographic fieldwork, this book describes and interprets trance behaviour among the Malagasy speakers of Mayotte, a small island in the Comoro Archipelago in the Indian Ocean off the coast of East Africa. Professor Lambek describes how the people of Mayotte most often women enter into trances during which they believe their bodies are inhabited by spirits. He then analyses the conventions for behaviour in trance and the process by which the individuals come to terms with the spirits in their midst. The book presents thorough case studies of spirit possession over time, providing one of the most detailed accounts of possession phenomena available for a single society. The author argues that trance can best be understood as a social activity within a defined system of cultural meaning rather than as a psychological problem, a simple deception or a means of manipulating others. This book should be of particular interest to those concerned with the study of ritual symbols and non-Western religious systems. The American Short-horn Herd Book Lewis Falley Allen, William T. Bailey, 1911 Boston Masonic Mirror, 1831 Bartlett Pamela Rohleder, Gabrielle Infusino, 2003 The Village of Bartlett got its official start on February 11, 1891 when the petition for incorporation was filed in Springfield, Illinois. Beginning with the fledgling Village that existed at the turn of the century and continuing through Bartlett's coming of age in the mid 1960s, Bartlett: Our Past and Our Progress chronicles the emergence of a community that has grown to epitomize the all-American town. This historical walk through Bartlett includes more than 200 images that portray many of the area's important firsts as well as its ongoing traditions. It features photographs of significant local landmarks such as the first train depot, Immanuel United Church of Christ, Bartlett Grade School, and most importantly, many wonderful pictures of its residents past and present. Residents have generously shared their photos and recollections with the Bartlett History Museum in order to tell the story of their hometown.
